Graciously hear the prayers which we offer to You O God.

We present our petitions through St. Peregrine, Your beloved servant and patron of those suffering from cancer and other life-threatening diseases. Grant that the sick may receive help in all their needs through the intercession of St. Peregrine, whose life was so pleasing to You.

HEAR US IN THE NAME OF CHRIST, OUR LORD. AMEN.

NOVENA TO ST. PEREGRINE (APRIL 23RD UNTIL

GOOD SHEPHERD

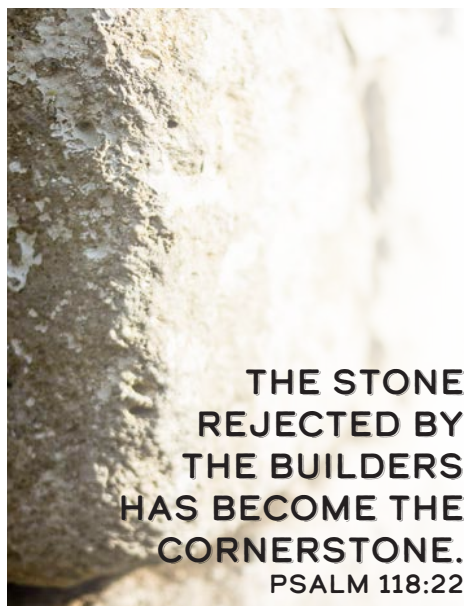

Reflection on John 10:11-18

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, Jesus says, "I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd." These words call to mind the Church's mission of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue, which St. John Paul II states "is part of the church's evangelizing mission (Redemptoris Missio, 56).

While Jesus calls for a unity, a oneness for His flock, the aims of these dialogues with other Christians and people of other faiths (or of no faith) usually fall within three objectives:

1. To help people of different religions to live together in peace and harmony, a task which is ever more urgent in a world becoming increasingly multicultural, multireligious, and secular;
2. To work together in the service of humankind, knowing that the problems which our world and communities face are so great there is need for the efforts of all, together, to reach out to those who are in need; and
3. To share spiritual values, a mutual witness to beliefs, and an exploration of the riches of our respective traditions, helping all to deepen their religious commitments, respond with greater sincerity to God's call, and walk together toward the truth.

SAINT FIDELIS OF SIGMARINGEN

Saint of the Day: April 24

Patron Saint of: Lawyers

If a poor man needed some clothing, Fidelis would often give the man the clothes right off his back. Complete generosity to others characterized this saint's life.

Born in 1577, Mark Rey became a lawyer who constantly upheld the causes of the poor and oppressed people. Nicknamed "the poor man's lawyer," Rey soon grew disgusted with the corruption and injustice he saw among his colleagues. He left his law career to become a priest. Fidelis was his religious name.

As a follower of Saint Francis of Assisi, Fidelis continued his devotion to the weak and needy. During a severe epidemic in a city where he was guardian of a friary, Fidelis cared for and cured many sick soldiers.

He was appointed head of a group of Capuchins sent to preach against the Calvinists and Zwinglians in Switzerland. Almost certain violence threatened. Those who observed the mission felt that success was more attributable to the prayer of Fidelis during the night than to his sermons and instructions.

He was accused of opposing the peasants' national aspirations for independence from Austria. While he was preaching at Seewis a gun was fired at him, but he escaped unharmed. A Protestant offered to shelter Fidelis, but he declined, saying his life was in God's hands. On the road back, he was set upon by a group of armed men and killed.

Fidelis was canonized in 1746. Fifteen years later he was recognized as a martyr.

Fidelis' constant prayer was that he be kept completely faithful to God and not give in to any lukewarmness or apathy. He was often heard to exclaim, "Woe to me if I should prove myself but a halfhearted soldier in the service of my thorn-crowned Captain." His prayer against apathy, and his concern for the poor and weak make him a saint whose example is valuable today.

SERMON ON JOHN 10:11-18 – THE GOOD SHEPHERD

This is a true story about a sermon that will live in the annals of preaching history. A young deacon studying for priesthood was required to preach a sermon about Jesus the Good Shepherd. He worked for days to make this sermon so memorable no one would ever forget it. Before stepping to the podium, he went back into the sacristy. People wondered what is he doing? The deacon reappeared in the sanctuary with something that took the congregation by surprise. To punctuate his message, he came out hoisting a live lamb wrapped around his shoulders just like the picture of Jesus holding a lamb. The congregation didn't know what to think. They never saw anything like this before.

The deacon began to preach the message that Jesus holds us just like I'm holding this docile lamb on my shoulders. He was energized by the captive audience hanging on his every word. Sadly, his euphoria turned to dread. The little lamb became "undocile." The deacon did not consider that like a little baby, when it's time to go, you just go. That lamb dumped all over him and all over the sanctuary. The congregation froze not knowing what to do. Courageously, the deacon kept preaching with the smelly little critter still hanging on his shoulders. The deacon got his wish. No one ever forgot this sermon! It is no surprise that no one took Communion from the deacon that day.

During my 40 years as a hospital chaplain, I have seen God get dumped on. I believe God picks you up when life knocks you down. God places you around His loving, caring shoulders. Yet, that doesn't stop some believers from dumping on God their anger or bitterness because they or someone they love is sick. I dealt with this "anger dumping" on God for many years at Children's Hospital. The anger was so intense, so real, so palpable. Their anger showed itself in the "Why" question. "God, why does my innocent child have this terrible sickness?" I never tried to answer that question because there is no human answer. Only God knows.

There is a beautiful message from the great tennis star Arthur Ashe to anyone who is asking God, "Why." He was the first African American to win the singles title at Wimbledon. In 1983, he was dying from AIDS which he got from a tainted blood transfusion during heart bypass surgery. He received many letters of support from fans. A question from one fan haunted him. "Why did God let you have such a bad disease?" Arthur had to answer it. Here was his reply:

5 million children learned to play tennis.
500,000 learned to play professional tennis.
50,000 joined the tour.
5,000 reached the Grand Slam
50 reached Wimbledon
4 reached the Semifinals
2 reached the Finals

"When I was holding the victory cup in my hand, I never asked God, 'Why me?' Now that I'm in pain, I have no need to ask God, 'Why me?' I am blessed either way."

I have learned from working in AA, you must take life on life's terms and find the blessing in everything. A parishioner wrote to me this gem of wisdom, "A child on a farm sees a plane in the sky and wishes he could fly. A pilot on the plane sees the farmhouse on the land and wishes he could return home."

When angry parents at Children's would ask me "Why," I would respond by saying it's the wrong question. You will never get an answer to the "Why." Instead, ask "What." Ask God, "What will you do to help my child?" Then forge ahead with Faith.

The deacon of our story became a very beloved priest in 1977. He became a well-known preacher giving retreats across the country. Sadly, he passed into Heaven in 2001 at the young age of 50 from cancer. Some may ask, "Why." He would probably answer, "Why not? God carried me on His shoulders to paradise. I am blessed." Blessings to you...
