DID YOU KNOW THAT THE HOLY FAMILY IS AN ICON OF THE TRINITY?

Through the beauty of the Holy Family, we learn more about the Mystery of the Trinity.

Alongside Christmas, the feast of the Holy Family helps reveal the wonder of Our Lord's Incarnation and humanity. One can see this beautiful reality when one considers the Holy Family as an icon of the Trinity.

Part of the Mystery of the Incarnation is the fact that God not only became man, but that He joined Himself to a human family. This reveals that God desires His human creatures – His image-bearers – to play essential roles in redemptive history. We rarely ponder how incredible this is!

Think about it for a moment: the Holy Trinity entrusted two humans with the tremendous role of raising one of Its "members" (astonishing!). The whole world could not contain God, yet He placed Himself inside the womb of a human mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. God created angelic beings with the power to collapse the universe, yet He chose a lowly human man as a guardian and foster-father, St. Joseph.

When we reflect on the nature of the Holy Trinity, we see that the human family itself teaches us about God. The Trinity is a loving, self-giving unity of three Divine Persons – God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit – in one Divine Being. Their loving union is procreative, in that the Holy Trinity brings creatures into existence to share in Its divine love for all eternity.

Likewise, a husband and wife join in a loving, self-giving, procreative union.

Therefore, it is not merely individual man and woman that bear the image of God, but also the human family itself, because together they form a union of love from which proceeds the fruitfulness of children. For this reason, Pope Benedict XVI called the human family an icon of the Holy Trinity:

"God wished to reveal Himself by being born in a human family, and hence the human family has become an icon of God . . . The human family is, in a certain sense, the icon of the Trinity because of the love between its members and the fruitfulness of that love."

The feast of the Holy Family, let us all ponder the beauty of the family and be inspired by the divine mysteries it reveals.

"O Holy Family – the Family so closely united to the mystery which we contemplate on the day of the Lord's Birth – guide with your example the families of the whole earth!" – Pope St. John Paul II

THE ROSARY IN A YEAR (WITH FR. MARK-MARY AMES) PODCAST

Imagine you're going on a pilgrimage to Rome. You arrive at St. Peter's Basilica, and your pilgrimage guide says, "You have 15 minutes to take in St. Peter's Basilica and then we're going to move on." Certainly, you can prayerfully experience much of St. Peter's Basilica in 15 minutes, but there will be so much you won't have the chance to fully receive and appreciate. Trying to do it all in 15 minutes presents serious limitations. The Rosary is similar. There is so much for us to receive, yet the 15 minutes it typically takes to pray the Rosary isn't enough time. We won't be praying 365 rosaries. Instead, we'll start small and build gradually. With Fr. Mark-Mary Ames, CFR as our guide, we will go deeper into each prayer and Mystery of the Rosary, allowing them the time they deserve to truly transform our hearts. This step-by-step journey will change the way you pray – no matter where you are in your spiritual life.

SERMON ON EPIPHANY – MATTHEW 2:1-12

The Catholic Church is trying harder to evangelize. It simply means to lead others to Jesus by the light of your faith in Jesus. God calls you to be the star that sheds light on who Jesus is. He is God who loves you. God wants you to live with Him forever. All your hopes for happiness can only be fulfilled in Jesus. How do you make followers for Jesus?

A most powerful way to evangelize is hospitality. Hospitality is “the friendly and generous welcoming of guests, visitors, or strangers.” Christian hospitality is welcoming someone to Jesus by revealing Him in the light of your own faith. Jesus tells you in the Bible how to evangelize. It can be found in John 1:36-41. Permit me to explain how Jesus evangelized before he started using miracles.

Step One: John 1:36. “When he (John the Baptist) saw Jesus passing by, he said, ‘Look, the Lamb of God!’” Here John is sharing his faith in Jesus to two of John’s followers.

Step Two: John 1:37 “When the two disciples heard him (John) say this, they followed Jesus.” The witness of the Baptist’s faith led them to Jesus.

Step Three: John 1:38 “Turning around, Jesus saw them following and asked, ‘What do you want?’ They said, ‘Rabbi’ (which means “Teacher”), where are you staying?’” Jesus acknowledges their desire for God.

Step Four: John 1:39 “‘Come and you will see.’ So, they went and saw where he (Jesus) was staying, and they spent that day with him.” Jesus showed such wonderful hospitality by spending the whole day with them. I can imagine Jesus cooking for them just like He did when He fed the Apostles breakfast after the Resurrection.

Step Five: John 1:40 “Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, was one of the two who heard John’s testimony and followed Jesus.” When I was the preacher at Mother of Christ African American Catholic Church in Winton Terrace, I always set aside time for testimony from the congregation about God working in their lives. Their testimony made converts for Jesus.

Step 6: John 1:41 “The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, ‘We have found the Messiah’ (that is, the Christ).” Like a tiny snowball rolling down a hill gathering more snow, your faith in Jesus spreads to others.

I ask now an important question. The Magi offered Jesus gifts. What gift will you bring to Jesus? I’ll explain with a story from my ministry.

The main work I did at Children’s Hospital for 27 years was prayers for healing over some very sick children. I prayed over them daily. There was a nurse in the Newborn Intensive Care Unit who was intrigued by my ministry of prayer. She said, “You always seem peaceful in the midst of such suffering. How do you do that?” I replied, “It’s my faith in God. I feel His presence constantly. God sends angels to watch over these little ones. Some will be healed and go home. Others, their angel will take them home to Heaven. But either way, God loves them.”

Several months later, I received the surprise of my life. I was praying the noon Mass at the hospital chapel when I saw this nurse sitting in the pew. Then she received Communion when it was offered. She saw the puzzled look on my face and smiled. She approached me after Mass ended. “Fr. Mike you should have seen the look on your face!” She continued, “I joined the Catholic Church over Easter. I didn’t tell you. I wanted to surprise you.” I replied, “You did that for sure!”

I asked, “What moved you to join the Church?” She said, “Your faith. I want what you got.”

One day, she asked me for a special prayer. “Please pray that I can have a child. My husband and I have been trying for nine years.” I prayed for her using the prayer from St. Gerard, patron of fertility. She gave birth to twins. Her husband called me and begged, “Don’t do that prayer again!” I never did. But a third child was born to them. I called him, “Don’t blame me for that one. It’s God’s doing.”

May your faith be the star that leads others to Jesus. “The people living in darkness have seen a great light.” (Matthew 4:16) You be that light. Happy New Year.
