FIVE IDEAS FOR LENTEN PENANCES

It's time to move beyond just giving up chocolate!

"What are you giving up for Lent?" It's the question we are all asking each other right about now. And yes, giving up something we enjoy such as sweets, coffee, or our favorite TV show is a great start. These external penances are a necessary part of the season – and should be a part of our lives in some way throughout the year. But what else can we do to actively cultivate virtue and really target our faults this Lent? How can we take our penances to the next level? Here are five ideas that might prove a bit challenging – but try 'em out and you'll be enjoying some sweet spiritual fruit soon!

1. Mortify your will through the practice of obedience. Obedience takes different forms depending on our state in life. Those in religious life must obey their religious superiors, and children their parents. As lay adults, we can do it by cheerfully serving our spouse and children, fulfilling our assigned tasks at work, or simply allowing others to go first in the buffet line!

2. Attend especially to the tasks you don't like doing. Padre Pio was once visited by the soul of a young friar who had worked in the sacristy. The soul revealed that he suffered in purgatory because he'd been careless and negligent with his work. Complete every task meticulously, no matter how small and insignificant.

3. Embrace annoyances. Annoyances abound in this life. Little flaws in other people especially provoke us to fixate on our aggravation. Very often the flaws are faults that we also are guilty of, but which we tolerate in ourselves. Over the next few weeks, when something in another person annoys you, examine yourself and discern how you, too, act or feel or think in that way.

4. Impose a strict watch on your tongue. Innumerable, mundane complaints escape our mouths daily, fostering ingratitude – so guard your tongue and inspect what you want to say before speaking.

5. Check impulsive actions. Be intentional in all that you do, asking yourself, "Do I really need to shoot off this text? Will this comment help anyone? Will I benefit from thoughtlessly popping snacks in my mouth?"

Lent is a long season and it's easy to grow weary – why not go through it as a family and help each other along?

"Our perfection does not consist of doing extraordinary things, but to do the ordinary well."

A RECOMMITMENT TO END HUNGER

Since 1975, Catholics across the United States have come together each Lent to respond to global hunger through the CRS Rice Bowl program. Learn how people like you have made a local and global impact on the lives of our sisters and brothers in need and why our prayers and almsgiving are still needed today. During this holy season, let us recommit to sharing bread for life with our global family so that all people can reach their God-given potential. Visit crsricebowl.org/week-1 to read this week's Story of Hope.

You can visit crsricebowl.org for stories, meatless recipes, prayers and more to enrich your Lenten journey. Please pick up your Rice Bowl for your family, located in the church.

 Fr. Mike is challenging each Church within our family to commit and see who raises the most this 2025 Rice Bowl Lenten Season! The Church that raises the most will be eligible for a prize from Fr. Mike, then a lucky parishioner to win the prize from that church! *****

SERMON ON LUKE 4:1-13

I received a very unusual phone call last week. A woman asked, “Is this THEE Father Mike?” Watch out for the word, “thee”. It means either someone likes you or you’re in big trouble. I replied haltingly, “Whose asking?” She said, “I’ve been looking for you.” Now I’m starting to get nervous. What she said next calmed my fears. “I want to thank you. My name is Theresa. You baptized my three-day-old baby Megan at Children’s Hospital. She was diagnosed with a life-threatening heart condition. We didn’t know if she would make it. The nurse told me you baptized her. Though I wasn’t there when you baptized her, it gave me great peace knowing, if my baby must die, the Holy Spirit was in her soul.” I asked Theresa, “When did I do this?” She replied, “In 1989.”

Theresa told me a beautiful love story about her daughter. “Megan lived for another 31 years, passing over to God in 2020. During those years, she suffered through 12 heart surgeries. She used to say, ‘Kids my age worry about acne but that’s nothing compared to the huge scar on my chest.’ Megan lived life to the fullest knowing every day could be her last. She faced her future without fear, never giving into the temptation to despair. Her positive attitude inspired everyone who knew her. The last five years of her life were truly blessed. She found love with Dan who found Megan on an internet dating site. It became a full-blown romance. They were engaged to be married. Dan promised Theresa, ‘I don’t know what the future holds for us. But I promise I will never leave Megan. I will walk with her, and be loyal to her, as long as her heart keeps beating.’ Dan was holding Megan when her heart beat its last as she crossed over to God.”

Lent is a time to remember that Jesus gave His heart to you. Every beat of His Heart screamed out, “I promise to never leave you. I am loyal to you till my last breath.” The Bible says, “With a loud cry, Jesus breathed his last.” (Mark 15:37). What did Jesus cry out? “Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit.” (Luke 23:46) Jesus died as He had lived. Total loyalty to His Father. Total loyalty to His Father’s children, which is you.

God asks you now, “Will you be loyal to Me? Will you give Me your Heart?” The devil will do everything he can to prevent you from doing this. He will tempt you just like He tempted Jesus. All temptations come from these three:

- 1) “Turn these stones into bread.” Loyalty to God’s will is more important than any physical pleasures. “But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be.” (Matthew 6:20-21)
- 2) “Then the devil took him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple and said to him, ‘If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down.’” In life’s difficulties, don’t demand that God give you a miraculous proof of His loyalty to you. And if you don’t receive that, you turn away from God in disbelief. Trust God’s Love when you don’t see it. It surrounds you like the wind you can’t see but know it’s there.
- 3) “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” The devil tempts you to make a created thing more important than the Creator. The Bible is very blunt about piled up wealth. “And a final word to you arrogant rich: ... You’ll need buckets for your tears when the crash comes upon you.” (James 5:1) I didn’t know St. James knew about the New York Stock Exchange!

Theresa concluded our phone call by saying that Dan has found new love four years after Megan left for God. She is happy for him and then added, “Dan has not forgotten Megan. The flame of his memories of her still burn in his heart.” Every day you have to choose either for Jesus or for Satan. May every beat of your heart say, “Jesus, I trust in you.” Happy Lent.
