OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL

With July 16 as her feast day, this title of Mary is associated with brown scapulars. The scapular comes to us through the vision of St. Simon Stock. Our Lady gave St. Simon a scapular for the Carmelites with the following promise, saying: "Receive, My beloved son, this habit of thy order: this shall be to thee and to all Carmelites a privilege, that whosoever dies clothed in this shall never suffer eternal fire It shall be a sign of salvation, a protection in danger, and a pledge of peace." Many miracles have been attributed to the scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.

WHY IS JULY THE MONTH OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD?

This monthly devotional stems from a pope's response to revolution.

Italy was in political turmoil for the first half of the 19th century. At that time, Austria ruled over some parts of Italy, and Italian revolutionaries were trying to throw off that rule. Petty skirmishes eventually led to a declaration of war on Austria in 1848 – and the Holy Father was caught in the middle.

Early in his pontificate, Blessed Pope Pius IX had extended political pardon to Italian revolutionaries who were exiled or imprisoned. His liberality, however, was greeted with demands to make further political concessions to the revolutionaries.

Finally, revolutionaries attacked the pope's rule in the Vatican State itself. Some of the pope's ministers were even murdered.

By 1848, Pius IX found himself besieged in his own papal palace because he refused to sanction the war on Catholic Austria. Foreign ambassadors staying with the pope helped him disguise himself and flee the Vatican. He went to Gaeta, accompanied by a superior general of the Fathers of the Precious Blood.

Inspired by the superior general, Pius IX decided to institute an official feast for the Most Precious Blood, praying for the end of the war and bloodshed in Italy.

Soon after he announced this decision – at the end of June, 1849 – the war subsided. The first Sunday of July was set aside for the Most Precious Blood, and later Pope St. Pius X fixed the feast on July 1st. (In the current calendar, this feast is no longer fixed, but is a moveable votive Mass.)

From the Pastor's Desk

When I received word that I had been appointed pastor of Our Lady of the Hills, many in my previous parish asked how I was feeling. I would respond, "I am nervous, excited, and an overall bundle of emotions." I was told that such feelings are normal, which was a relief – but I share this now as a way of expressing my gratitude.

Change can be difficult because it often brings with it a fear of the unknown, and I certainly experienced that. However, I am reminded that God's plan is always greater and more perfectly ordered than any plans I could make.

Now, as I look back on these first days as your pastor, I am filled with immense gratitude. You have welcomed Fr. Adam and me with kindness, generosity, and the assurance of your prayers. I cannot thank you enough for the warmth of your welcome, which in many ways brought the presence of Christ into these early days.

In our Gospel this weekend, we hear Jesus recite the Shema prayer from the Book of Deuteronomy – a kind of creedal statement encompassing the two greatest commandments: Love of God and love of neighbor. My prayer for our family of parishes is that the love of God and neighbor, which has been so evident to me already, will continue to grow and flourish, so that we may truly become a family of parishes set ablaze with the fire of God's love for us. Thank you again for your kindness, generosity, and support as we embark on this new journey together. Please continue to pray for Fr. Adam and me, and for all in our parish. Know that I am praying for each of you daily.

Fr. Scott Morgan

40-DAY FORMATION SCHEDULE CON

Prophecy and Discernment

We are told by St. Paul to seek the gift of prophecy above all other Gifts in 1Cor. 14:1. Discernment is always needed with Prophecy.

July 16-18

Worship and Evangelization

We will be looking at several approaches to Evangelization, including St. Paul VI's Apostolic exhortation on Evangelization and St. John Paul II's New Evangelization. Also there seems to be a correlation between Worship and our ability to evangelize observed by our founder, Fr. Albert Lauer.

July 18-20*

Intercession and Healing

Do you believe what Jesus said? "Whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these..." John 14:12. We need clarity, certainty and commitment to have victory over Satan as he tries to confuse us about God's love and mercy. Come hear God's command clearly and move in certainty as you follow Him in His ministry of healing and intercession.

SAINT BONAVENTURE

Saint of the Day: July 15

Patron Saint of bowel disorders

Born in Bagnoregio in 1221, Saint Bonaventure was baptized John, but received the name Bonaventure when he became a Franciscan at the age of 22. Little is known about his childhood, but we do know that his parents were Giovanni di Fidenza and Maria Ritell. It seems that his father was a physician and a man of means. While Saint Francis died about five years after the saint's birth, he is credited with healing Bonaventure as a boy of a serious illness.

Saint Bonaventure's teaching career came to a halt when the Friars elected him to serve as their General Minister. His 17 years of service were not easy as the Order was embroiled in conflicts over the interpretation of poverty. Some friars even ended up in heresy saying that Saint Francis and his community were inaugurating the era of the Holy Spirit which was to replace Jesus, the Church, and Scripture. But because he was a man of prayer and a good administrator, Saint Bonaventure managed to structure the Order through effective legislation. But more importantly, he offered the Friars an organized spirituality based on the vision and insights of Saint Francis. Always a Franciscan at heart and a mystical writer, Bonaventure managed to unite the pastoral, practical aspects of life with the doctrines of the Church. Thus, there is a noticeable warmth to his teachings and writings that make him very appealing.

Shortly before he ended his service as General Minister, Pope Gregory X created him a Cardinal and appointed him bishop of Albano. But a little over a year later, while participating in the Second Council of Lyon, Saint Bonaventure died suddenly on July 15, 1274. There is a theory that he was poisoned.

Saint Bonaventure left behind a structured and renewed Franciscan Order and a body of work all of which glorifies his major love – Jesus.
