Prayer of the Nine-Month Novena to Our Lady of Guadalupe 12 March to 12 December, 2024

O Virgin Mother of God, we fly to your protection and beg your intercession against the darkness and sin which ever more envelope the world and menace the Church. Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, gave you to us as our mother as He died on the Cross for our salvation. So, too, in 1531, when darkness and sin beset us, He sent you, as Our Lady of Guadalupe, on Tepeyac to lead us to Him Who alone is our light and our salvation.

Through your apparitions on Tepeyac and your abiding presence with us on the miraculous mantle of your messenger, Saint Juan Diego, millions of souls converted to faith in your Divine Son. Through this novena and our consecration to you, we humbly implore your intercession for our daily conversion of life to Him and the conversion of millions more who do not yet believe in Him. In our homes and in our nation, lead us to Him Who alone wins the victory over sin and darkness in us and in the world.

Unite our hearts to your Immaculate Heart so that they may find their true and lasting home in the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Ever guide us along the pilgrimage of life to our eternal home with Him. So may our hearts, one with yours, always trust in God's promise of salvation, in His never-failing mercy toward all who turn to Him with a humble and contrite heart. Through this novena and our consecration to you, O Virgin of Guadalupe, lead all souls in America and throughout the world to your Divine Son in Whose name we pray. Amen.

Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke

To be prayed daily throughout the nine-month novena from March 12 to December 12, 2024.

FIRST COMMUNION SERMON

Before my First Communion in 1957, I asked my parents if I could do something that surprised them. I wanted Mom and Dad to walk me to the Communion Rail, which was expected. But then I asked the unexpected. "Can I have Uncle Joe walk us, too?" Uncle Joe was my dad's older brother. He had a hard life working in the coal mines where he got arthritis really bad. His fingers were all crooked. The pain made him sad and sometimes angry. Yet, I wanted to get to know him. That's why I asked dad if Uncle Joe could join us.

So, my dad took me to Uncle Joe's house. He opened the door, surprised to see us. Dad said to Joe, "Michael has something special to ask you." I simply asked, "Uncle Joe, will you walk with me for my First Communion?" To this day, I'll never forget the look on his face. His eyes started to water. He explained it away by saying "just my darn allergies." I suspected he was crying. This was the first time I saw a grown man cry. I thought only kids cried. Uncle Joe then said, "It makes me happy to be with you." This was the first time I ever saw him smile.

My First Communion was so special because he was there. But then something even more special happened after Mass ended. Mom and Dad threw a party at our home, which was government apartments because we weren't rich enough to live in a house. Uncle Joe took me aside privately. He said, "I have a gift for you." He gave me a little wrapped box. Inside was a beautiful gold wristwatch. I didn't know yet how to tell time but I didn't care. On the back of the watch he had engraved two words. He read it to me because I didn't yet know how to read. It said, "Remember me".

I wore that watch for the next 29 years. Every time I wore it, I remembered my Uncle Joe and my First Communion where he walked me to the Communion Rail with his hand on my shoulder. The watch broke in 1986, the same year he went to Heaven.

Children, today you will make your First Communion. Jesus made Holy Communion at the Last Supper before going to Heaven. The Bible describes what Jesus did, "And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, 'This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me.'" (Luke 22:19)

Just like my Uncle Joe who gave me a gift to remember him, Jesus gives us a wonderful gift. Every time you receive Holy Communion, remember Jesus. Remember that Jesus loves you. Remember that Jesus will always help you. Remember that Jesus is loyal to you. Remember that Jesus is near you with His hand on your shoulder. And never forget Jesus lives inside of you. His Body becomes one with your body. That's why we call it "Communion" which means to be one. It's like when someone gives you a big hug.

The best time to talk with Jesus is right after eating Holy Communion. A very good person, Saint Teresa, said this is what you should do. "After you receive Jesus into your heart, tell Him how much you love him. Talk to Him as your best friend because that is just what He is. Ask Jesus what He wants you to do with your life."

This is what Jesus wants you to do. Jesus wants you to remember to love like He does. Here are a few suggestions:

1. Obey everything your mom and dad say for the next 25 years. (Parents may get 25 minutes, if they're lucky.)
2. Always tell mom and dad the truth. Especially your mom because she can see everything even when she is not looking at you.
3. Give your mom and dad lots of hugs and kisses and tell them how much you love them. They will remember this when you turn 16 and you want to borrow the car.
4. Be sure to go to bed on time. Moms and dads love you the most when you are sleeping.
5. God gave you only one mom and dad just for you. Cherish them. Treat them good now and they'll babysit for you later. Twenty years from now, you'll what I mean.

Jesus wants you to do everything in remembrance of Him. May we never forget that.

Blessings...Fr. Mike
