KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ST. MARY COAT DRIVE

Please donate your gently used, no longer needed coats to the box located in the Narthex.

We all have Catholic friends, family members, neighbors, or coworkers who have become disengaged from the practice of their faith. Many of them may just be waiting for a personal invitation back to regular attendance at Mass. Invite one Catholic back to Mass on Sunday, November 24, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Worship is better together, and a simple invitation could be life-changing.

ST. MARY ANNUAL FOOD DRIVE COLLECTION Please Return by November 23rd

Bags are located in between the Church and Narthex. Please consider giving Canned Goods, Personal Hygiene Items, Soups, Beans...

CAN YOU NAME THE TWELVE FRUITS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT? You've learned about the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. But did you know there are also twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit? You probably had to memorize the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit as part of your Confirmation preparation. You may have accidentally thrown in a few fruits of the Holy Spirit on a Confirmation class quiz: wisdom, fortitude, knowledge... peace...or was it piety?... generosity...is that a gift or a fruit...? Let's have a refresher. The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are seven specific graces He gives us, particularly in the Sacrament of Confirmation. According to the Catechism, they are permanent dispositions that help us respond to the promptings of the Spirit:

Wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

The fruits of the Holy Spirit are the result of a life lived according to the Spirit. They are the natural outcroppings of a branch closely united to the Vine, Who is Christ. In the true vine discourse in the Gospel of John, Christ said that those who abide in Him will bear much fruit and glorify the Father.

St. Paul lists the twelve fruits in his letter to the Galatians, and this number has been confirmed by the tradition of the Church:

Charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity.

Ever notice how someone who strives after holiness just glows with these attributes? Like fire producing light and heat, a soul on fire with the Holy Spirit naturally emits these traits. Not that we are always patient, kind, and good every moment of every day, but if we keep working to remove the barriers of sin, these fruits will surely shine.

ST. MARY CHURCH CHOIR WELCOMES & NEEDS YOU!! Please consider joining the Choir

Meet on Tuesdays from 7:30-8:30 p.m. in the Choir Loft. Contact Lynn: 937-763-8522

Liturgical Role: Choirs lead the congregation in song, supporting the prayers and responses of the liturgy. Their voices help uplift the congregation, allowing members to feel more deeply connected to the Mass and the communal prayer experience.

Educational Role: Choirs also have an educational function, often introducing the congregation to a wide variety of sacred music. This can include everything from traditional hymns to contemporary spiritual compositions, broadening the musical experience of the community.

Evangelical Role: Through musical excellence, choirs can serve as a form of evangelization. Beautiful, well-executed music can touch the hearts of believers and nonbelievers alike, drawing them into the mystery and solemnity of the Mass.

Music has been an integral part of worship in the Catholic Church for centuries, playing a critical role in both ritual and celebration. This connection is deeply rooted in tradition, providing a resonant backdrop to the sacred liturgy. Choirs, organists, composers, and congregational singing enrich spiritual experience and foster a sense of community and belonging among worshippers.

WISHING YOU A BLESSED & HAPPY THANKSGIVING Our Lady of The Hills

SERMON ON MARK 13:24-32

y father, Walter, told me a story that gave him great peace as he neared the end of 96 years on earth. It involved his father, Stanley, who was diagnosed with coronary artery disease in 1956. My grandfather ate copious amounts of fat. A day without pickled pig's feet fat is like a day without sunshine.

My father, along with his brother John, took Stanley to the famed Mayo Clinic to see if the doctors could do anything to save him. The report was grim. There was simply too much fatty plaque in his arteries. Bypass heart surgeries wouldn't be performed till 1973. Lifesaving stents were still thirty years away.

Stanley was admitted to the hospital near Pittsburgh on Monday, May 27th, 1957. The family stood vigil around his bed. My grandmother, dressed in all black, prayed the Rosary without stopping. My grandfather passed early in the morning around 1:00 a.m. the next day. He was only 63.

What happened next gave peace to my father. He said, "I was driving home to tell your mother Pop had passed. I was crying so hard the tears blurred my vision. I almost missed the road that led to our government housing where we lived at the time. I got out of the car and walked to the door. I didn't enter right away. I just stood there. I prayed for Dad that he made it to Heaven. I asked God to give me a sign he made it there. Pop was not a religious man who went to church much. But he made darn sure all his kids went to Mass. Your grandmother walked us to the church. Pop worked hard six days a week, laboring in the steel factory for his kids. He provided warm clothes on our back, shoes without holes on our feet and food on the table. When Sunday came around, he was exhausted."

"Instead of walking through the door, something told me to turn around and look up to the sky. It was a beautiful, clear night. Stars were shining everywhere. That is when God gave me the sign I prayed for. This really big shooting star streaked across the sky. It lasted a long time before eventually burning out. I whispered into the night air, 'So long Pop. Safe journey. One day I'll see you again.'" My Pop's wish came true 65 years later on August 7th, 2022. I never saw a shooting star when he passed. The light of his faith was good enough sign for me.

Life as we know it on earth will come to an end. The light of this world will become dark. "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light..." Yet, we know by faith, life itself will not end. In Heaven there is no darkness at all. "There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever." (Rev 22:5)

After Stanley passed, my grandmother Frances grieved for the next 18 years. She would say this one phrase frequently, "I pray to God I die and go to Heaven." She repeated this phrase to everything. We would wish her a "Merry Christmas", or "Happy Birthday", or simply "have a good day." Her response to them all: "I pray to God I die and go to Heaven."

When I was young, I found her refrain strange. I didn't understand what she meant. Now that I'm older, I know exactly what she meant. My grandmother was saying now that the joy of having her husband is gone, her true joy will be in Heaven. She could not read or write but she was the greatest theologian I ever knew. She lived what St. Paul wrote in Colossians 3:2, "Set your minds on things above, not on things of earth."

I am privileged to have prepared so many people to cross over to the next life. They told me what they learned about this life before leaving. I share with you this one lesson I heard the most. They wish they had been more loving to those who were important in their life.

One woman told me, "I regret not saying 'I love you' more often."

As I finish writing this sermon, my cat, Jayden, put his front paws on my leg. He wants me to pick him up and show him some love. Maybe God is reminding me to do that more often with those who matter the most. Blessings...Fr. Mike
