FOUR WAYS TO MAKE IT A CATHOLIC THANKSGIVING

Make America's feasting day into a real "feast day"!

We don't often think of Thanksgiving as a "Catholic" holiday. After all, it is a man-made occasion, rather than a liturgical feast day like Christmas or Easter.

However, a holiday created by Christians and centered around gratitude is something that merges easily with our faith, and so Thanksgiving can be a very Catholic day for us!

Here's some ideas as to how to make it a Catholic Thanksgiving:

1. Start the day with Mass. The word "Eucharist" means "thanksgiving," and indeed, the Mass is the greatest act of thanksgiving we can make to God. Additionally, you can center your prayers on the theme of gratitude throughout Thanksgiving Day. Invite your guests to pray with you, especially at grace before meals.

2. Remember the first Thanksgiving. Do we mean the harvest dinner of the Pilgrims? While we can remember that too, the first Thanksgiving actually took place 60 years earlier. A Spanish fleet arrived in Florida in 1565, and its Franciscan chaplain, Fr. Francisco Lopez de Mendoza Grajales, offered a Mass of thanksgiving when they came ashore. The region's natives joined the Spanish for Mass and a celebratory meal afterwards.

3. Celebrate St. Martin. In Catholic tradition, one of the great saints we celebrate in November is St. Martin of Tours, famous for his act of charity towards a needy beggar. His November 11th feast, called Martinmas, was celebrated much like our Thanksgiving: harvest vegetables, wine from the summer vintage, even roast goose. In fact, there is evidence that this roast goose is the predecessor of our American Thanksgiving turkey!

4. Imitate the charity of Squanto. Although the historical details of the first Thanksgiving are debated, we do know a good bit about a certain key character. Tisquantum, or Squanto, had little reason to be nice to white people: an Englishman had enslaved him and taken him away from his people several years earlier. Through the goodness of two Spanish Franciscan friars who bought his freedom, he was able to eventually return home (and it appears he was baptized a Catholic by these same friars!). Sadly, Squanto found on his return that his whole community had been wiped out by European disease. Nonetheless, he acted as a translator and emissary between the Pilgrims and the natives of the area and taught the newcomers the skills they needed to survive. His story exemplifies forgiveness, charity, and generosity – virtues we should all strive to imitate, and remind you to be thankful always.

Please consider joining the Choir!

Meet on Tuesdays from 7:30-8:30 p.m. in the Choir Loft.

Contact Lynn: 937-763-8522

Liturgical Role: Choirs lead the congregation in song, supporting the prayers and responses of the liturgy. Their voices help uplift the congregation, allowing members to feel more deeply connected to the Mass and the communal prayer experience.

Educational Role: Choirs also have an educational function, often introducing the congregation to a wide variety of sacred music. This can include everything from traditional hymns to contemporary spiritual compositions, broadening the musical experience of the community.

Evangelical Role: Through musical excellence, choirs can serve as a form of evangelization. Beautiful, well-executed music can touch the hearts of believers and nonbelievers alike, drawing them into the mystery and solemnity of the Mass.

Music has been an integral part of worship in the Catholic Church for centuries, playing a critical role in both ritual and celebration. This connection is deeply rooted in tradition, providing a resonant backdrop to the sacred liturgy. Choirs, organists, composers, and congregational singing enrich spiritual experience and foster a sense of community and belonging among worshippers.

COLLECTION NOVEMBER 24TH

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ "... to bring glad tidings to the poor ... liberty to captives ... sight to the blind and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

The belief that those who are directly affected by unjust systems and structures have the best insight into knowing how to change them is central to CCHD. CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a handout.

SERMON ON CHRIST THE KING JOHN 18:33-37

A boy walked into a store and went straight to get a carton box to put in front of the telephone. The store owner watched all this with mild curiosity. Once the carton box was in place, the boy climbed on it and reached for the phone.

The boy dialed a number. When the other line picked up, he asked if they would hire him to cut their lawn. The person on the other end declined. The boy asked again.

He said, "I will cut the lawn better than whoever is cutting your lawn now. I can also sweep your curb, your sidewalk, and your driveway. Your lawn will be the prettiest in all of the neighborhood!" He was making such a good pitch that the store owner couldn't help but be impressed.

As the boy replaced the phone in the receiver, the store owner couldn't help but ask the boy, "Well, did you get the job?"

The boy smiled, "No, I didn't. They said they're happy with the service they're getting right now." The store owner felt terrible for the boy. "I like your persistent attitude! I can give you a job!"

To his surprise, the boy declined. "No, thank you. I am the one who cuts their lawn. I pretended to be someone else to check if they were happy with my work."

Christ the King Sunday reminds us that you work for God. He is your Boss. Your job is to please God with your body. The Word of God clearly says in Romans 12:1, "Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship."

Jesus told Pilate, "Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." (John 18:37) To give God true worship you don't have to call Jesus on the phone. God left us a manual of how to please Him. It's called the Bible where God has already voiced His Truth, testified by Jesus. What is the truth God wants you to hear?

When you are afraid, God speaks, "Do not fear, for I am with you." (Is 41:10)

When confronted with human need, Jesus speaks "I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty, and you gave me drink." (Mt 25:35)

In the face of racism or hatred for someone different than you, there is God's voice that says, "You shall love the foreigner as yourself." (Lev 19:34)

In the darkness of death, Jesus says, "Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live" (Jn 11:25).

Next week starts Advent. Call God in prayer. Listen to Him speak. I close with the lyrics from Godspell's song "Day by Day":

Day by day, oh, Dear Lord, three things I pray
To see Thee more clearly
Love Thee more dearly
Follow Thee more nearly, day by day...Have a Blessed Advent.
