"Let the Word of God come; let it enter the church; let it become a consuming fire, that it may burn the hay and stubble, and consume whatever is worldly; there is heavy load of iniquity in many; let it be molten by divine fire; let the gold and silver vessels be made better, in order that understanding and speech, refined by the heat of suffering, may begin to be more precious."

WHAT IS THE CHRISTMAS HYMN OF ST. AMBROSE?

This beloved hymn was a declaration of faith in the Church's doctrine. St. Ambrose is famed for being a composer – both of lyrics and melody. His hymns were simple, rhythmic, and full of devotion. They were very popular in Milan and spread throughout the Church in the years after his death.

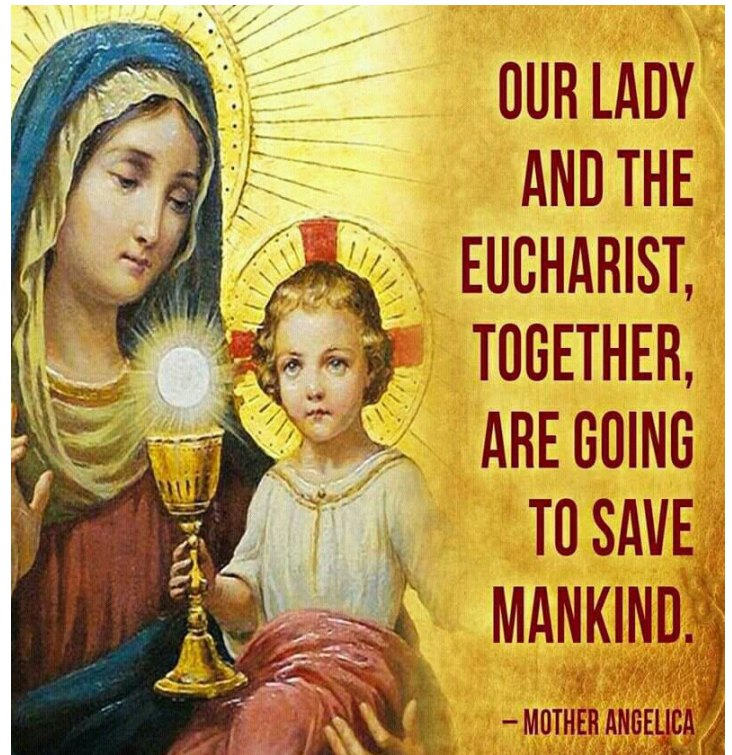

One of these hymns – Veni, Redemptor gentium (Come, Thou Redeemer of the Earth) – was written for Christmas. Both his good friend St. Augustine and Pope St. Celestine I admired its concise beauty.

The words of the hymn declare the great beliefs of the Church – the united divinity and humanity of Jesus and the virginity of the Blessed Mother before, during, and after the Incarnation – which were under attack by various heresies at the time.

Here are some verses from this profound hymn:

Come, Thou Redeemer of the earth,
And manifest Thy virgin birth:
Let every age adoring fall;
Such birth befits the God of all...
The virgin womb that burden gained
With virgin honor all unstained;
The banners there of virtue glow;
God in His temple dwells below.
Forth from His chamber goeth He,
That royal home of purity,
A giant in twofold substance one,
Rejoicing now His course to run.
O equal to the Father, Thou!
Gird on Thy fleshly mantle now;
The weakness of our mortal state
With deathless might invigorate...
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee
Eternal praise and glory be,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Spirit, evermore.

SVDP of St. Benignus is seeking membership growth. Thank you to all who donate - but if you have free hands, desire to increase your spirituality, want to validate the dignity of others, or have ideas to help others, we would love to hear from you.

Contact Kristy Bockrath at 937-361-6590 for opportunities.

SVDP St. Benignus – Thank You! In the month of November 2024, we had 27 families come through our doors and each family of four or less left with about $37.00 worth of groceries and cleaning items. We were able to pledge $382.00 to keep essential utilities on for five families. We had fewer fresh egg donations to distribute due to chickens molting but expect their production to ramp back up in the spring. SVDP is again offering meat vouchers at the Community Market to allow families to take home a package of meat for their holiday meal. Please pray for those having difficulty meeting essential needs this winter.

Our Christmas poinsettias memorialize those who have gone before us.

Give them eternal rest, O Lord, and may Your light shine on them. Amen.

What is GAUDETE SUNDAY?

This Third Sunday of Advent was called "Gaudete Sunday".

It stemmed from the first word of the Entrance Antiphon in the Latin Missal: "GAUDETE in Domino Semper" means "REJOICE in the Lord Always"

The motive to rejoice during Advent is the nearness of the coming of the Lord. As an external manifestation of the Joy, the color of the liturgical vestments may be rose instead of purple to emphasize that the day of the coming of the Lord is truly a cause for rejoicing for anyone who tries to live a life of faith because our redemption and liberation is at hand.

WHAT IS THE SAINT ANDREW NOVENA?

It is a devotion, also known as the Christmas Anticipation Prayer, that starts on the feast day of St. Andrew the Apostle, November 30, and ends on Christmas Eve – December 24. It consists in reciting the prayer found below 15 times each day of the Novena period. Its exact origin is unknown, but it is believed to have begun in Ireland during the 19th century. This is a very meditative prayer that brings about graces, increases our awareness of the real focus of Christmas and prepares us spiritually for His coming.

Novena

Hail and blessed be the hour and moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Virgin Mary, at midnight, in Bethlehem, in the piercing cold. In that hour vouchsafe, I beseech Thee, O my God, to hear my prayer and grant my desires, [here mention your request] through the merits of Our Saviour Jesus Christ, and of His blessed Mother. Amen.

Recite the above prayer 15 times a day from November 30 to December 24

The youth at St. Benignus created cards again this year for the Christmas Cookies of Love project. Cookies and cards will be delivered around Fayette County to residents that could use some extra holiday spirit.

SERMON ON ZEPHANIAH 3:17

The LORD your God is with you. He is a hero who saves you. He happily rejoices over you, renews you with his love, and celebrates over you with shouts of joy. (Zephaniah 3:17)

God was celebrating with many joyful shouts last Saturday at Holy Trinity Church, West Union for eighteen-year-old Drew. He came to Mass to give over his entire life to Jesus. It was a bittersweet moment because this will be the last time Drew could ever come to church. He has a rapidly spreading brain tumor. He can no longer walk. He can no longer hear nor talk. He can only see out of his left eye. Drew will be leaving this world very soon. His last wish is to leave here as a Christian in the Catholic faith. Drew is living the true meaning of Advent as he prepares to meet Jesus.

Using the only eye that can see, Drew reads the Bible daily as he doesn't know how long that eye will continue to function. He prays intently because he will soon see the One he is praying to – Jesus. Drew is especially devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It gladdens him that his fingers can still feel each bead of the Rosary.

Drew arrived at church in a wheelchair. Three family members then carried him to a more comfortable leather chair. All the congregation gathered around him. They sensed that a living saint was in their midst.

I celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation first, calling for the Holy Spirit to fill his soul. All those present extended their hands over him in prayer. Then I prayed the Last Rites prayer: "Go forth Christian Soul to God the Father who created you. To Jesus who redeemed you. To the Holy Spirit who sanctifies you in love. Be with the God of Light and of Love, the God of Goodness and Grace, the God of Mercy and Kindness, the God of Care and Compassion. May the Saints come out to welcome you, the Angels bring you and the Martyrs take you to the Holy City, the Kingdom of God. Receive his soul and present him to God the Most High. And may flights of Angels sing you to your rest." Many worshippers shed tears, overwhelmed with the sorrow of Drew leaving us so young, but joy knowing he is going to a place where he will be young forever.

Finally, I gave Drew the Holy Communion. He could no longer eat so I broke off a small piece of the host. Since he can no longer hear, I wrote him a note that I placed in front of his left eye. It read, "Tell Jesus we all said, 'Hi.'" He smiled. I kissed Drew on the top of his now-bald head. I felt like I was giving a love kiss to Jesus.

The celebration of Drew's journey to Jesus concluded in a miraculous way. We had no music at this Mass, but we very much wanted a song dedicated to Blessed Mary whom Drew loved so much. And God provided. In the congregation was our parishioner, Lauren, who is a cantor with a beautiful voice. She normally doesn't go to this particular Saturday evening Mass, but God put her there this day just for Drew. She sang for him the "Ave Maria" in Latin by memory. Lauren was the only one who could have done this. God planned this for sure. The words of St. Paul became so real: "Rejoice in the Lord always. I shall say it again: rejoice!" (Phil 4:4) Drew could not hear Lauren singing for him, but he heard it in his heart...and rejoiced.

The third Sunday of Advent is called "Joyful." I urge you. Give God a reason to rejoice over you. Live your life to please God. God says, "glory and honor and peace to everyone who does good." (Romans 2:10) What is the good God wants you to do? Here it is: "Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others." (Phil 2:4)

I don't know if Drew will be with us when I preach this sermon. But I know he lived a life pleasing to God. Go and do the same. Happy Advent

(Update: Immediately after finishing the writing of this sermon on Monday, I received a text. Drew's breathing is now very weak. He requested no intubation. His birth to new life is beginning. Please God, celebrate him home.)
