WHO IS THE PATRON SAINT OF ALTAR BOYS?

This heroic young martyr is a model for all who serve. "Whatcha doin', Tarcisus?" came a familiar voice. "Don't you want to play with us?" "Yeah, where are you going?" said another. Tarcisus recognized the voices – they belonged to some friends he went to school with. But they weren't Christians, and he didn't trust them. "What are you carrying?" said a third. Tarcisus turned to see a whole group of them flocking towards him. He kept on walking. "Just heading to visit a few friends down the road," he said, honestly. "Can't stop to talk." His step quickened and he held the Blessed Sacrament, hidden beneath his mantle, a little closer. He, an acolyte, had been sent to carry Jesus to those ministering to the imprisoned Christians condemned to die. "You've got something. What is it?" "I have nothing for you." "Yes, you've got something. Let's see! Is it one of your Christian things?" "Ooh, maybe it's that weird bread they worship!" This was not going to end well, Tarcisus decided. He grasped the Sacrament tighter and began to run, but the mob quickly surrounded him. "You're not going anywhere! Get him! Get the bread!" Knowing what was about to happen, the courageous young man may well have prayed, "Into your hands, O Lord, I commit my spirit." The vicious gang descended on him. By the time a Christian soldier passing by drove them off, Tarcisus was mortally wounded. The soldier gathered the martyr in his arms, where he soon died. Still grasped in his faithful hands, safe and untouched, was the Blessed Sacrament.

What we know for sure of the life of St. Tarcisus comes to us from a short poem written about him and St. Stephen by Pope Damasus in the 4th century, which tells us his name and that he died defending the Holy Eucharist. A 6th-century legend adds that he was an acolyte. He was probably killed between the mid-3rd and early 4th centuries. With his courage, devotion, and steadfast love for Jesus in the Eucharist, Tarcisus remains a model for all young men, especially those who serve at the altar of God.

WHAT IS THE SAINT ANDREW NOVENA?

It is a devotion, also known as the Christmas Anticipation Prayer, that starts on the feast day of St. Andrew the Apostle, November 30, and ends on Christmas Eve – December 24. It consists in reciting the prayer found below 15 times each day of the Novena period. Its exact origin is unknown, but it is believed to have begun in Ireland during the 19th century. This is a very meditative prayer that brings about graces, increases our awareness of the real focus of Christmas and prepares us spiritually for His coming.

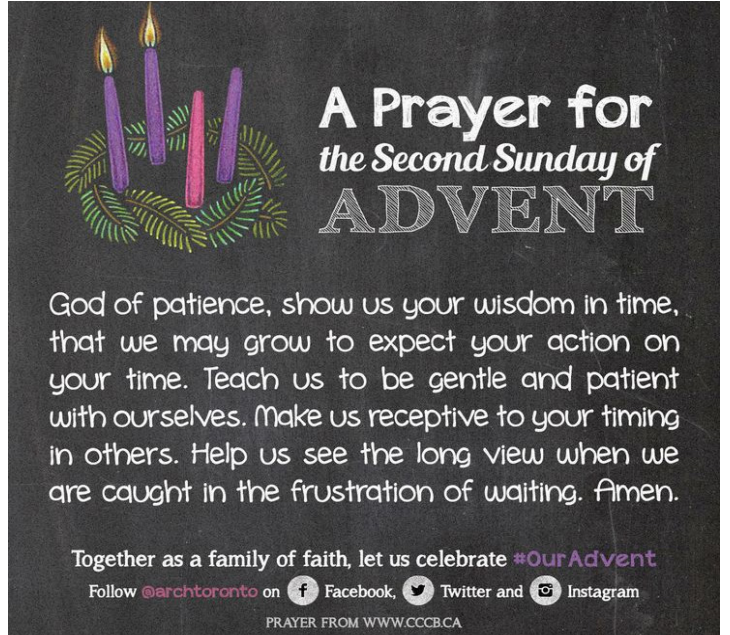

Novena – Hail and blessed be the hour and moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Virgin Mary, at midnight, in Bethlehem, in the piercing cold. In that hour vouchsafe, I beseech Thee, O my God, to hear my prayer and grant my desires, [here mention your request] through the merits of Our Saviour Jesus Christ, and of His blessed Mother. Amen. Recite the above prayer 15 times a day from November 30 to December 24.

THANK YOU!

Our Lady of The Hills, Thank You to everyone who donated candles and donations for shipping costs. In the last two weeks, we mailed 19 boxes to Ukraine! They will be so grateful and appreciated. The boxes included medical supplies, warm clothes and candles that will provide light and heat and medical supplies for many, donated by several of my friends here, friends from Seneca and Wyandot Counties, and the Sister's and Associates of St. Francis in Tiffin. Together we can shine hope and light in our world!!

Thank You So Much,

SERMON ON LUKE 3:1-6

My first brand new car was a 1975 Toyota Corolla. I bought it in the dead of winter to get a good deal. I parked it away from other cars so no one could dent it with their doors. One day, I heard this thumping outside my apartment window. I saw a young boy throwing snowballs at the side of my car. I yelled for him to stop doing that. He ran away. I was aghast when I saw the side of my car riddled with dents.

I knew where the kid lived. I calmed down before paying a visit to the kid's dad. I explained to him his son did a lot of damage. The father felt the son should be accountable to pay me back the cost of the 100-dollar deductible, which was a lot of money back then. We devised a plan where the son would give me all the money he made cutting grass. The money collected would be stored in a big glass jar which he would give me in the fall.

That kid kept his part of the bargain. I would see him cutting grass all over Batavia. I even let him cut my grass, paying him his usual fee - a buck fifty (worth 10.00 dollars today).

The boy came to my house in the fall and handed me the glass jar filled with dollar bills. He said, "Here's the money I owe you. Sorry about denting your car by throwing snowballs at it. I just got bored."

He handed me the jar. I told him, "I don't want the money." He looked at me like I was nuts. I told him, "I want you to take this money and give it away to someone standing in line waiting to get free bread at that building near Holy Trinity Church (the one in Batavia). Pick any person you want." I personally drove him up there to make sure he gave it away. I instructed him, "Say to whomever you give this jar to, 'This is a gift from God.'"

The following Sunday, I attended Mass at Holy Trinity. This guy came up to me very excitedly. He said, "My wife is sick with cancer. I have to take her for many visits at the hospital in Cincinnati. I prayed to God for gas money which I don't have. Then this kid comes to me at the bread line and gives me a jar filled with dollar bills, saying 'This is a gift from God.' God sure works in mysterious ways."

To declare "God works in mysterious ways" simply means God has a plan to help us. God reveals His plans in Jer 29:11 "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope." Advent is a celebration that God sent Jesus to give you a future life that never ends and a hope that God loves you so much He would die to have you with Him. "God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8) God loved the unlovable sinner. That is the joy of Advent.

John the Baptist was yelling out to everyone: "Prepare the way of the Lord." The best way for you to prepare to meet Jesus is to "love the unlovable" like Jesus did. There are so many people that have no self-worth, believing themselves not worthy of God's love nor deserving of love from anyone.

I felt that way. When I left the seminary in 1974, I felt unloved by God, the Church and a disappointment to others for giving up the call to priesthood. I carried around the scarlet letter on my chest, "F" for failure. But God sent me a wonderful priest, Fr. Ed, who affirmed my worth. He restored my faith in God's Love for me. He told me, "God loves you for your faith, not your successes." I am a priest today because Fr. Ed became "God in the flesh" loving me when I felt unlovable.

As the beautiful hymn says, "All I Ask of You Is Forever to Remember Me as Loving You."
