“Faith and reason are like two wings on which the human spirit rises to the contemplation of truth; and God has placed in the human heart a desire to know the truth in a word, to know himself so that, by knowing and loving God, men and women may also come to the fullness of truth about themselves.”
 – Pope St. John Paul II

“[Jesus’] body was for Him not a limitation, but an instrument, so that He was both in it and in all things, and outside all things, resting in the Father above. At one and the same time—this is the wonder—as man He was a human life, and as Word He was sustaining the life of the universe, and as Son He was in constant union with the Father.”
 – St. Athanasius of Alexandria

WHAT IS “ST. JOSEPH’S TABLE”?

Invite the Holy Family into your home with this joyful tradition!

A “table” in honor of St. Joseph – whose Solemnity we celebrate in a week – is a delightful tradition that comes to us from Sicily. And guess what: you can re-create it in your own home!

According to legend, a terrible drought struck Sicily in medieval times. The people begged St. Joseph to intercede for them and, sure enough, rain fell and saved the people from starvation.

In thanksgiving, the people created a great table filled with delicious foods and treats and shared their abundance with the poor.

The tradition took off, and every year Sicilians – and eventually other regions and countries – would celebrate this feast day with a “St. Joseph’s Table” to be shared with friends, family, and, in a particular way, the less fortunate. Traditionally, food was specially set aside for giving to the poor. No one is turned away from the Table!

You can find this tradition today at many parishes right here in the United States.

Here’s how the traditional Table usually looks. Different places have their own regional specialties and you can add your own as well!

The table gives the impression of a little makeshift shrine or altar, with three tiers representing the Holy Trinity and steps leading to Heaven. A statue of St. Joseph stands on the topmost tier. Lilies and other flowers as well as candles and a basket of prayer intentions are often included.

Surrounding St. Joseph is a smorgasbord of beautiful foods, which are symbolic as well as delicious. Some of the most common ones include:

- Sardines and other fish. No meat is included, to commemorate the time of Lent.
- Sesame bread, which is formed into shapes such as St. Joseph’s staff, a sheaf of wheat, the Cross, and the Crown of Thorns.
- Bean dishes, especially lentils and fava beans (the hardy bean that is said to have sustained the Sicilians during the famine).
- Bread crumbs are used in the cooking of the foods, to represent the sawdust of St. Joseph’s workshop.
- Lots of sweets. A traditional Italian one is St. Joseph’s Sfinge, a puff pastry filled with ricotta and topped with a cherry.
- Citrus fruits and wine.

Many places begin the celebration with the “tupa-tupa” or “knock-knock.” Children dressed as the Holy Family move from one building or door to another, knocking and asking for shelter. They are refused until they get to the building containing the St. Joseph’s Table. They are then invited in with joy and served first as the guests of honor.

As a carpenter, St. Joseph appreciates beautiful woodwork.

to St. Joseph*

Blessed Joseph, husband of Mary
Be with us this day.
You defended the Virgin
loving the Child Jesus as your son,
you rescued Him from danger of death.
Defend the Church, the household of God,
purchased by the blood of Christ.
Guardian of the Holy Family,
be with us in our trials,
may your prayers obtain for us
the grace to flee from error
and wrestle with the powers of corruption, so that in life
we may grow in holiness and in death rejoice in the Crown of Victory. Amen

SERMON ON LUKE 4:1-13

Have you ever walked a prayer labyrinth or even know what it is? It is a one-way path in a circle that leads to a center spot where you open your heart to listen to God. It is a prayer where you empty your mind of all daily cares so God can talk with you.

As I began this prayer journey, I thought about the many people I knew disfigured by sickness, loneliness, sadness or grief. My walk through the labyrinth began with painful memories. I prayed for them, but realized I had to let go of those memories so I could listen to God speak.

I reached the center spot where I expected a divine revelation from the Lord. It never came. I stood there for ten minutes. Nothing happened. Disappointment came over me. I walked out of the labyrinth feeling like it failed.

God finally revealed Himself once I walked out of the labyrinth. He said to me, "Michael, I was speaking to you the whole time through your memories." Then three words came to me I believe were from God. He said, "Transfigure the disfigured."

God helped me to understand what that meant through a little boy who had a disease that disfigured his face. He had a disease similar to the elephant man, John Merrick, called neurofibromatosis. His face had thick lumpy skin like an elephant. If one looked beyond his disfigured face, they could see divine goodness in his soul. I spent a lot of time with this little boy who got a bum deal in life. I played a game with him called, "flip a dollar." I would flip a dollar in the air. He would call "heads or tails." I always made sure the dollar landed to whatever he called. He got a lot of money from me, but it was worth it.

The day came I would never see him again because he was moving away to another hospital. Some of his last words to me were, "Thanks for making me happy. Life isn't all bad."

Jesus transfigured His body to reveal the divinity within Him. Jesus knew that very soon Peter, James and John would behold His disfigured bloody, broken, and dead body on the Cross. Jesus was saying to them, "Keep faith. God is in control. I am with you when life seems hopeless. I can change (transfigure) the worst situation into goodness." The worst sin ever committed against God was "deicide." Humans killed God. Yet from the worst sin ever committed came the greatest blessing known to man. The disfigured Jesus on the Cross transfigured human life into something beautiful for the Father. Friendship is restored, Life lives on, and Love reigns supreme. Romans 10:15 says, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of good things!"

Jesus brings to you the good news that God's Divinity dwells within the most difficult, the most painful, the most sorrowful moments in your life. The Divine Jesus can transfigure the disfigured. You have to let Him be in control. Give it over to Him. See the Divine working in everything.

I close with the lyrics from a very old song penned by Charles Wesley:

"Christ whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only light,
Sun of righteousness, arise,
triumph o'er the shades of night;
Dayspring from on high, be near;
daystar in my heart appear."
