WHY IS ST. BENEDICT ALWAYS PORTRAYED WITH A RAVEN?

Did you know that a bird saved this saint's life?

St. Benedict's monastery was built next to a large forest. Every day at mealtime, a raven living in the forest flew into the dining room and alighted next to the saintly abbot. Benedict would feed the raven, and the raven would return to the forest.

No one knows what Benedict's monks thought of this daily performance, but one day an event occurred which forever made the raven welcome to the Order.

A neighboring priest who had fallen away from his faith was consumed with jealousy of Benedict's reputation. He did all he could to slander Benedict and keep people from visiting the saint. His efforts only served to increase Benedict's fame.

Finally, the jealous man baked a loaf, poisoned it, and sent it to Benedict as a gift.

Mealtime came. The raven flew in through the window. One account says that Benedict took up the poisoned loaf and threw it to the raven, saying, "In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, take up that loaf, and leave it in some such place where no man may find it."

The raven protested – it hopped about the loaf, cawing loudly, but would not touch the bread until Benedict promised no harm would come to the raven. Then the bird seized the loaf and flew away, and did not return for three hours.

Another account relates that just as Benedict was about to bless and eat the bread, the raven – looking on with its eyes bright and its head cocked – flew at the loaf, plucked it from the saint's hands, and fled with it.

Since then, Benedictines have viewed the raven as a reminder of God's protection over them.

Although St. Benedict was threatened a few times, the monastic way of life he established, The Rule of St. Benedict, actually promotes an incredibly slow, peaceful, and prayerful life!

PROTECTING CROPS FROM NATURAL DISASTERS IN BANGLADESH

Shahadat's village, and much of Bangladesh, is located on flat lowlands. The intense rainy season causes flooding that often destroys farms and crops. Find out how Shahadat learned new farming skills from a Catholic Relief Services program that enabled him to increase the yield of his vegetable crops despite the challenges of climate change. Visit crsricebowl.org/week-4 to read this week's Story of Hope.

You can visit crsricebowl.org for stories, meatless recipes, prayers and more to enrich your Lenten journey.

WHAT IS THE JUBILEE YEAR 2025?

<https://catholicaoc.org/jubilee-2025>

A Jubilee Year is a special time in the Church’s tradition, encouraging holiness through acts of reconciliation and communion with our brothers and sisters. The Church celebrates an Ordinary Jubilee every twenty-five years, with the last celebration having taken place in 2000. Jubilee Year 2025 will be marked by special opportunities for grace through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, local pilgrimages and the Jubilee Indulgence. Seeking forgiveness and growing in repentance are special fruits to cultivate during a Jubilee Year.

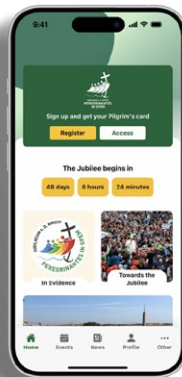

In the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, three locations have been designated as Jubilee Pilgrimage Sites: the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Peter in Chains, the Shrine of the Holy Relics at Maria Stein, and Emmanuel Catholic Church in Dayton. A pilgrimage visit to any of these sites can apply to the reception of the Jubilee Indulgence.

The Way of the Cross

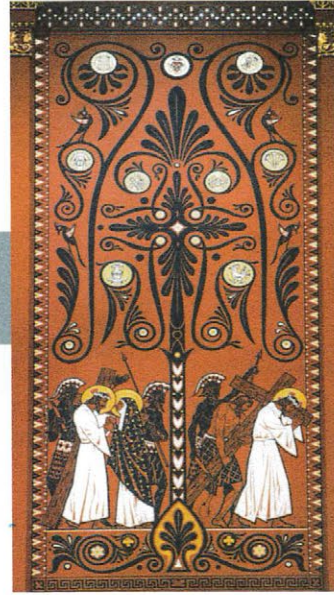

PRAYING WITH THE STATION MURALS AT THE CATHEDRAL BASILICA

I Jesus is condemned to death

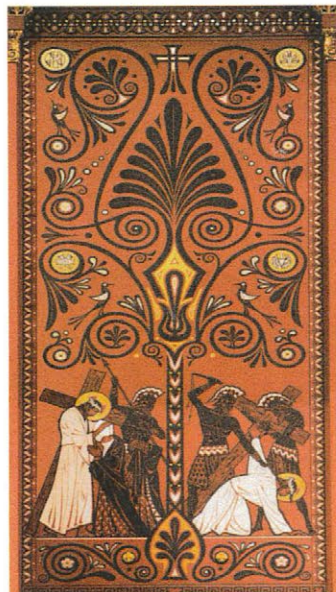

II Jesus carries his cross
III Jesus falls the first time

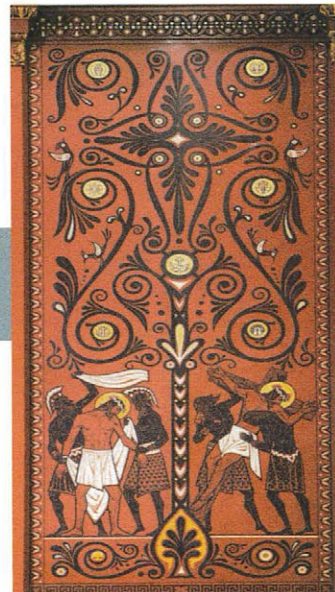

IV Jesus meets his mother
V Simon helps Jesus carry his cross

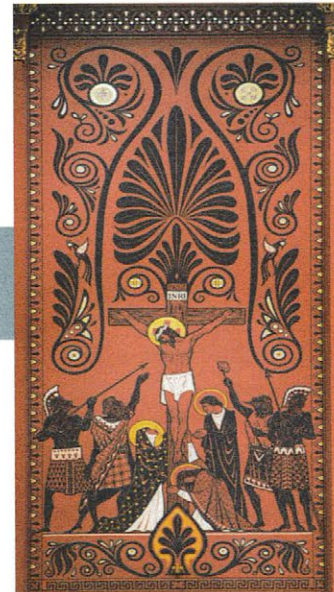

VI Veronica wipes Jesus's face
VII Jesus falls a second time

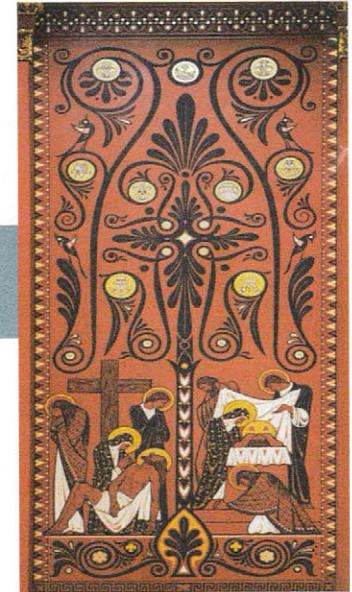

VIII Jesus speaks to the Holy Women
IX Jesus falls the third time

X Jesus is stripped of his garments
XI Jesus is nailed to the cross

XII Jesus dies on the cross

XIII Jesus is taken down from the cross
XIV Jesus is laid in the sepulcher

One of the most striking features of the nave of the cathedral basilica is the series of murals which form the Way of the Cross. Carl Zimmerman, muralist, did eight great panels, each measuring 26 feet in height and 11 feet in width. The idea for the panels came from a style of art found on ancient Greek vases (c. 500 B.C.). Mr. Zimmerman was justly proud of the way he took the Greek ornamental figures and reworked them into a Christian symbol. Early Greek vases of the period featured decorative designs in black varnish highlighted with white or gold against a rich colored clay varying from deep red to pale orange. Above the black marble wainscoting, the Stations of the Cross move in procession around the nave, beginning by the Baptistry Chapel. Each panel (except for the Stations I and XII, which stand-alone) contains two stations. The Tree of Life is the central symbol in each panel, indicating that all life flows from Christ. Christian symbols worked into the Tree give each panel a theme. Stations II and III, for instance, feature the Tree of Teaching with the symbols of the four evangelists; Stations IV and V, the Tree of Suffering with symbols of the Passion (whip, crown of thorns, nails, etc.).

SERMON ON THE PRODIGAL SON AND THE MERCIFUL FATHER

Part of my joy in celebrating Mass is greeting the worshippers as they leave the service. If I see a lot of happy, smiling faces, then I know God touched their hearts. Last Sunday, I talked with a beautiful young couple who told me they have been together for about a year. I jokingly asked, "Do you still like each other?" She immediately answered, "Yes". He also answered "yes" but then said thoughtfully, "I don't always like her, but I will always love her." I was touched by his wisdom.

The Prodigal Son did something his father could never like. His request to receive half of the inheritance before his dad died hurt his father deeply. The son basically told his dad, "I don't care about you. I just want your money." Half of his son's inheritance would be the farm. The father would have to divide the land which the son would sell to raise the cash. The prodigal son is telling his father, "I don't want to be connected with this family any longer. I don't want to live here with you anymore." The son not only rejected his father personally but all the moral values his father taught him. The son squandered his dad's money with "loose living."

The father suffered deep humiliation from the town folk. As soon as the son sold half the family farm, everyone would know about it. Many probably criticized the father for not raising his son properly or for allowing this to happen at all.

The father did not like what his son did to him. But the father's actions revealed another part to this story. "I will always love him." This is how the father loved him unceasingly.

1) Did you notice the father never rejected his son. He could have said, "Take it. Go. I never want to see you again!" Instead, the father kept watch on the main road hoping for his son's return. The caring of a father's broken heart never stopped.

2) Hoping against hope, the day came when the father saw his son slowly, haltingly walking down the road. Dad had every right to ridicule his son. "Look at you. Your clothes are dirty. You stink. Your feet are bloody. You don't even have shoes." Instead of ridiculing his son, the father restores him. He restores him as his son. He gives him the signature ring to sign contracts, the robe of membership in the family and shoes only family members wore unlike servants. These are the privileges of a son.

3) The story of the Prodigal Son is not primarily about bad and wrong but lost and found. The father gives his lost and found son total acceptance and lavish generosity that he did not earn or deserve. This is called, "God's Grace." The problem with the elder son is he worked so hard to earn his father's love without realizing he already had it. The elder son complained, "yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends." I wonder if the elder son ever asked his father for a goat. Perhaps he was so busy trying to be the "good son" he forgot he had a "good father" who said to him, "everything I have is yours." I wish Jesus would have let us know if the elder son got his pity party.

The Good News of this story is that God's Love for you is not based on your good behavior. You can go to God dirty. He will clean you with His Mercy. There is a beautiful story about a Christian leader named Joe Bayly and his rebellious son. The son left home and joined a hippie commune. The father received a call his son was arrested. He visited several police stations throughout the night, but his son could not be found. Joe figured out it was a prank call. Before going home, Joe went to the flophouse where his son was staying. He walked through sleeping bodies till he found his son sleeping on a bed. He bent over, kissed him, and left.

Years later, that son became a pastor of a church. He told his dad, "Dad, do you know what turned me around? It was that night you came into my room and kissed me. You thought that I was asleep, but I wasn't. I thought, 'If my dad loves me that much, I had better get my life right with God.'" Happy Lent
