SOUTHEAST DEANERY CENTURY FARM AWARD

Once again, Southeast Catholic Rural Life would like to honor Catholic families who have farmed and nurtured the same land for 100 years or more. Presentation of the awards will be made at the Fall Farm Mass on Friday, September 5, 2025. To qualify, the owner must be a practicing Catholic, the farm must be located in the Southeast Deanery (roughly Clermont, Brown, Adams, Clinton or Highland Counties) and a copy of the original deed needs to be attached to the application form and submitted by Friday, May 30, 2025. Applications can be found on the web by searching "catholic rural life Cincinnati." Scroll down to find the link to the Century Farm Awards. Questions may be referred to Marilyn Fryer at 937-378-4583.

From Courtney Gallimore: What do you see in this picture? I see an abundance of love from my family, friends and church members. This picture shows that a community can come together to support strangers they have never met. This picture shows that a small gesture can be a blessing in someone else's life. This picture shows God's love for others through our smallest actions. This picture is just awesome!!! Thank you to everyone who contributed to the 5th Annual Lenten Baby Shower. The items have all been delivered to the Southern Ohio Pregnancy Center. They were so excited with the delivery. Thank you again, our community is so blessed ❤️. Happy Easter! "I alone cannot change the world, but I can cast a stone across the waters to create many ripples."

— Mother Teresa

DONATION BABY BOTTLES

The WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED program is collecting donations for the SOUTHERN OHIO PREGNANCY CENTER. It is easy to help support moms in our community. Just pick up a baby bottle, fill it with money or a check, and return it to the Communion rail on Mother's Day weekend (May 10th and 11th). Thank you so much for your support. All the moms helped are always so appreciative when they can take better care of their babies/children because of your financial help. May our good God bless each of you in all your efforts!

ARCHDIOCESE OF CINCINNATI

Office of the Archbishop

archbishop@catholicaoc.org
513.263.6612

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A long-treasured value of our Church, dating back to its earliest days, has been the care for those who are most vulnerable. As Catholics we are called to love one another and accompany one another in moments of blessing and in moments of challenge. When facing any difficulty, we quickly discover our dependency, not only upon God, but upon each other in the exercise of charity and concern for our neighbor.

It is with this in mind that our archdiocese will take up the Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Collection on May 3rd and 4th. These have been trying times for CRS. This year, CRS experienced a drastic reduction of funds from the U.S. Agency for International Development, known as USAID. USAID dollars provided more than 50% of the CRS budget. Dozens of life saving projects, providing critical aid to millions of people worldwide, have been impacted. Some of these projects have been permanently terminated.

Historically, the Collection supports Catholic agencies that carry out international relief and solidarity efforts: Catholic Relief Services for international relief and development; Migration and Refugee Services for refugee resettlement; Catholic Legal Immigration Network Inc. (CLINIC) for immigration legal services; Department of Justice, Peace, and Human Development for advocacy; the Holy Father's Relief Fund for emergency relief; and Secretariat of Cultural Diversity in the Church for evangelization and ministry. These programs include relief and resettlement for victims of persecution, war, and natural disaster; development projects to improve living conditions for the poor; legal and support services for poor immigrants; peace and reconciliation work for people suffering from violence; and advocacy on behalf of the powerless.

These projects do more than save lives. They help lift communities and countries out of poverty. They support local faith-based and church partners that provide services and stability to their communities and to their countries. They demonstrate our Church's commitment to living out the great commandment of love.

Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection this year. Thank you for all the support you have given in the past. To learn more about the collection and the people who benefit, please visit <https://www.usccb.org/national-collection/catholic-relief-services-collection>.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert G. Casey
Archbishop of Cincinnati

SERMON ON JOHN 20:19-31

mother who had nine children was asked, “Which child do you love the most?” She thought about it for a second then replied, “I love the child most who needs it the most.” The Apostles needed God’s love and mercy the most. On the first day of the week, which is a Sunday, they barricaded themselves behind locked doors. They carried in their hearts the guilt of abandoning their Lord. “I don’t even know the man,” said Peter. The rest of them cowardly ran away. Peter was most painfully aware of how much he hurt Jesus. Peter replied when confronted about being a friend of Jesus, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed...The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. (Luke 22:60-61) Peter’s betrayal stabbed the heart of Jesus long before the Roman soldier thrust his spear. The Apostles were gripped with fear for their very lives. “Peter said to Jesus, ‘Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you!’ And all the disciples said the same.” (Matthew 26:35) They feared their failed bragging would now come true.

In the midst of all their guilt, fear and hurt, Jesus bursts into the room. He simply says, “Peace be with you.” Jesus standing in their midst is a powerful and comforting message of hope for all of us. There is no sin so bad, no fear so big, no hurt so deep that Jesus can’t break through the locked door of your heart. Jesus gives all His Mercy and Love to you when you need it the most. That is how He gives you peace.

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give it to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.” (John 14:27) Peace is God’s gift to you. But what is it? Peace is not just what you feel because there are no more problems. God’s peace is the confident belief that your problems will not last forever. God knows what you are going through and will lead you through it. There is a difference between a troubled spirit and a troubled heart. A troubled spirit is an emotion of unhappiness you feel in the face of difficulties. Even Jesus experienced that. I’m sure Jesus was not happy with Satan who brought sickness and death into His beautiful creation. But Jesus never had a troubled heart which constantly lives in fear and despair. The Peace Jesus gives will protect your heart no matter what troubles you are going through. Jesus said, “I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth, you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.” (John 16:33)

The peace that Jesus gives you is not just for you. It is meant to be shared. “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” You are called to be a window revealing a glimpse of the Risen Jesus by your deeds of love and your witness of faith. I spent Easter Sunday with my sister and her companion. Her house is like a revolving door of welcome. Friends drop by unannounced throughout the day for food and drinks. I call her place the “Polish Party Palace” where pierogies rule. I was deeply touched by two of her visitors. One is her good friend whose wife died of cancer. He told me, “I was so despondent when my wife died. I was all alone living in grief and pity. Then I befriended your sister. Her love pulled me out of the darkness. She helped me feel alive again.”

Another friend dropped by. She was one of the few women allowed into the Masters golf tournament because she set up the lighting for CBS Sports. She is suffering from stage 4 cancer. Yet she is so upbeat one would not suspect she is fighting to live. She credits my sister’s long friendship for giving her a reason to keep going.

Easter is God’s way of saying, “Let’s party.” Jesus welcomes you to celebrate Easter with Him in His house. Don’t go alone. Bring a guest. All are welcome. Happy Easter.
