WHO IS THE PATRON SAINT OF FIRST COMMUNICANTS?

Blessed Imelda Lambertini had one lifelong desire: to receive Jesus in Holy Communion.

Little Imelda was just five years old when, one day in 1327, she went to her parents and expressed her greatest desire: to receive her First Holy Communion immediately.

You can imagine the joy and surprise Imelda's parents felt upon hearing such a request from so young a child. But Imelda had to wait. At that time, laity received Communion only on special occasions, and children made their First Communion after their twelfth year.

For the next few years, Imelda spent most of her time contemplating Jesus in the Eucharist and the ecstasy of one day receiving Him into her soul. Periodically, she asked again to make her First Communion. Even though the answer was always the same, she never stopped asking.

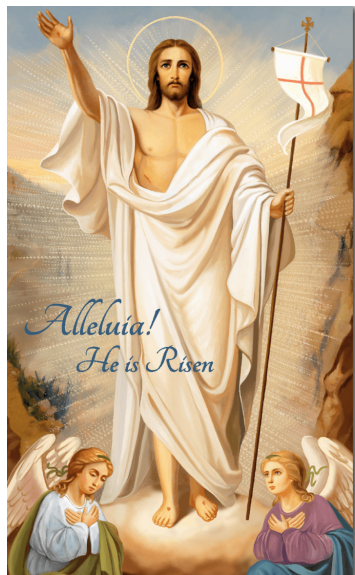

When Imelda was nine, she was permitted to enter the Dominican order as a postulant. Her thoughts and prayers still centered on Jesus' presence in the Eucharist.

Two years later, on the Feast of the Ascension, she made her request again. The answer came back the same: "No, Imelda, not yet. Soon, but not yet."

After Mass, all the sisters left the chapel. Soon they found that Imelda was not with them and hurried back to find her. There she was kneeling before the tabernacle and gazing with sparkling eyes upon a Eucharistic host miraculously suspended above her. Seeing this, the priest gave her her First Holy Communion.

Imelda received Jesus with keen joy and Adoration. Her communion with Him was so complete that He called her soul to be in heaven with Him immediately.

Do you know someone receiving their First Communion? Now is the best time to get a gift for your own first communicant's special day!

An Easter Prayer

On this day, loving and gracious God, we once again sing Alleluia. We praise You and bless You for raising Your Son, Jesus, up from the dead. We praise You for all the times You have raised us up through Your loving grace.

When we are weak and unable to make good decisions, when we are stubborn and refuse to forgive others, when we are afraid or uncertain and forget that it is You who strengthens us, raise us up, loving God, raise us up.

Thank You for giving us new life in Your Son and for His presence among us this Eastertime and always.

Amen.

St. Mary Ladies Auxiliary Group Meeting Date at St. Mary on Tuesday, May 6, 2025 at 6:30 p.m.

A Reflection for Earth Day

God,
Creator of All,

We offer our prayer in gratitude and humility that we might heed your call to care for one another through our care of the least, the lowest and the most vulnerable of all your blessed creation.

Grant, we pray, the courage to speak on behalf of the soft soil under our feet, the running and still waters, the warmth of the sun on our face, and all the crawling, flying and swimming creatures you love. May our courage to speak translate into actions that protect our planet—so that our children and their children might enjoy the fruits of what we sow.

In your name, we pray.
AMEN.

EASTER SERMON ON MATTHEW 28:1-10

A little boy had a major heart surgery. The outcome was uncertain because the operation was so new. I sat in the hospital room with mom and dad. Doctors and nurses gathered around his bed. All eyes were fixed on the heart monitor. There were many chest tubes injecting medicine to help his heart keep beating. As time passed, the heart beats grew slower and more shallow. I heard the doctor whisper to the nurse, "We're losing him." The heart monitor displayed what no one ever wants to see. Electric activity that could barely be seen. The beeps of the heartbeat grew faint.

Mom and Dad were invited to sit near their boy's bed. They gently touched their boy's hand and arm. Mom quietly spoke. "We love you so much. Come back to us." Then the miracle happened. The heart monitor rang out a most welcome sound. "Beep...Beep...Beep." A wave of electric activity burst forth. The heart rhythm returned. I could hear the doctor say, "This kid must be Lazarus." With an increase of medication, the beeps kept sounding and the heart kept beating. That boy was discharged to home after several weeks. I saw mom and dad as they were leaving. I told the boy, "Your Mom and Dad are so happy. Ask Dad to buy you a car now. Garage it till you're 16." The smiling Dad said to me, "God gave my boy the best gift...his own special Easter."

The Resurrection of Jesus at Easter is not just a one-day celebration. Jesus gives you your own special Easter anytime you feel trapped in a tomb of worry or fear. Jesus can roll back your stone of hopelessness. God says, "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." (Jeremiah 29:11)

As I grow older, I am very aware there are so many things I have no control over. I need God's guidance and grace (God's Love in action) more than ever. I believe God will do for me what I cannot do for myself. It's so cool that after the angel rolled back the stone, he sat on it. It's like the angel was saying, "God's in charge. He got your problems taken care of. He has changed the stone that trapped you into a comfortable chair for you." (Resting on a large stone during a long hike can be very relaxing).

The problem happens when I try to do for myself instead of trusting that God can help me if I just get out of the way. I need to give God more freedom to work in my life. When I was a small boy, I went deer hunting with my father. I was horrified when I saw a young deer trapped in a barbed wire fence. That poor deer kept flailing around trying to get free. But the more it struggled, the tighter the barbed wire gripped it. My dad and the other hunters had to hold it still so they could cut away the barbed wire. It's the same with God. Just hold still. Let God cut away the barbs and snares of problems that you find yourself caught in. Do not fear. Jesus said to the women when He met them on the road, "'Greetings,' He said. Then Jesus said to them, 'Do not be afraid.'" (Matthew 28:9-10)

Someone once said, "Egg hunts are proof that your children can find things when they really want to." God has a special Easter waiting just for you. It's there. If you look with the eyes of faith, you will find it. Happy Easter.
