"Let us love Jesus above all, let us love Mary as our mother; but then, how could we keep from loving Joseph, who was so intimately united to both Jesus and Mary? And how can we honor him better than by imitating his virtues? Now, what else did he do in all his life but contemplate, study, and adore Jesus, even in the midst of his daily labors? Behold, therefore, our model."

Questions may be referred to Marilyn Fryer at 937-378-4583.

"For there are three ways of performing an act of mercy: the merciful word, by forgiving and by comforting; secondly, if you can offer no word, then pray – that too is mercy; and thirdly, deeds of mercy."
– St. Faustina Kowalska

WHAT ARE THE SEVEN-CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY?

These works are the perfect guide for imitating Jesus.

The Catholic Church has always preserved the teaching of Christ that both faith and works are important in living out our faith. We prove our faith by imitating Jesus' good works and His command to serve one another – and by living out our values in real, practical ways.

When He told the story of separating the sheep from the goats on the day of judgement, He said to the sheep, "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me" (Matthew 25:40). The goats were those who did not perform these works of mercy.

Thankfully, the Catholic Church provides us with a summary of the works of mercy to help us serve the least of Christ's brethren. The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines these works of mercy as "charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities."

We have the spiritual works of mercy (works that help a person's soul) and the corporal works of mercy (works that provide for someone's physical needs).

The seven-corporal works of mercy are:

1. Feed the hungry
2. Give drink to the thirsty
3. Shelter the homeless
4. Visit the sick
5. Visit prisoners
6. Bury the dead
7. Clothe the naked.

We can do corporal works of mercy in both small and large ways. Sometimes our daily lives get so busy that we can't spend the day volunteering at a homeless shelter, or we can't afford large donations to alleviate many people in poverty.

That's when we find small ways to administer the corporal works of mercy. We can stop by a hospital or nursing home to say hello to a lonely patient or buy a meal for a homeless person on the street. Even giving just five dollars to a local charity counts!

These simple acts can make a great difference. St. Catherine of Sienna's famous quote is a great reminder of the good God can do through you; "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire."

DONATION BABY BOTTLES

The WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED program is collecting Baby Bottle donations for the SOUTHERN OHIO PREGNANCY CENTER. It is easy to help support moms in our community. Just pick up a baby bottle, fill it with money or a check, and return it to the Communion Rail on Mother's Day weekend (May 10th and 11th). Thank you so much for your support. All the moms helped are always so appreciative when they can take better care of their babies/children because of your financial help. May our good God bless each of you in all your efforts!

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

The 62nd World Day of Prayer for Vocations is Sunday, May 11. The theme for this year is "Pilgrims of Hope: The Gift of Life." Fulfilling the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38). Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, and consecrated life including societies of apostolic life and secular institutes.

FAMILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Father, increase our family's love for one another. May we honor each other in times of happiness or hardship, bearing with one another in love, just as You love us. In a special way, help us strive for holiness in our current states of life. Should You call some of us to the priesthood or religious life, help us to respond with courage and joy. Together, we make heaven our goal, and pledge, with Your grace, to help each other on life's journey to You. Through the intercession of the Holy Family: Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Amen

WORKERS for the HARVEST

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ.

We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will.

Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

VIANNEY VOCATIONS

For VOCATIONS to the PRIESTHOOD

God our Father, from eternity You appointed Your only begotten Son to be the High Priest of the human race. Pour forth, we beseech You, Your Holy Spirit upon our families, that vocations to the priesthood may be multiplied.

Lord Jesus, give us holy priests:

To offer up the sacrifice of the Mass;

To lead the little ones to You;

To strengthen the faith of believers;

To preach the Gospel to all peoples;

To bring forgiveness to sinners;

To feed souls the Bread of Life;

To comfort the suffering & dying, and

To spread Your Kingdom in our midst.

Mary, Mother of our High Priest, pray for us and obtain for us an increase of holy priests.

Amen

SERMON ON JOHN 10:27-30 – THE GOOD SHEPHERD

n elderly woman sat on a park bench crying. A concerned young man sat beside her. “Can I help?” he asked. The woman said, “I’m embarrassed for crying in public, but I couldn’t help it. My husband just passed. My life is so uncertain. How can I live without him? Who are you that you care?” He answered, “I am a Mormon Missionary.” He then asked her a strange question. Do you ever read the Sunday comics? When I was a kid, I would put them right up to my eye, real close. I was amazed they were just a mass of dots, scattered around that made no sense. I think life is like that. From God’s perspective, He can see the whole picture. It makes sense to Him. Our lives are not just scattered dots. We are all connected to the One who made the dots. He makes it beautiful and meaningful and good. Seeing life close up, we can’t expect it to make sense right now. I believe God will one day show you the entire picture. On that day, you will laugh again just like you would do reading the Sunday comics.

All of us have felt uncertainty. I feel it right now as I wonder what God wants me to do in retirement. Uncertainty is not knowing what to do or believe, or not being able to decide about something. You can’t see the whole picture but only random events, the dots, that leave you confused.

There is one thing you must do when uncertainty and doubts creep into your soul. Take it to Jesus. Jesus knows you just like a shepherd knows everything about his sheep. Jesus knows you personally and intimately. He knows more about you than you even know about yourself. Jesus is the Good Shepherd because what He offers you will crush uncertainty. It is called Security. Security is freedom. Freedom from fear, freedom from anxiety, freedom from danger. God made humans to need security. A baby’s cry screams out, “Mom where are you? I want you. Hold me! Feed me!” One mother told me, “All my baby does is whine and dine.”

When life throws senseless dots at you, stay connected to Jesus. Have faith that Jesus can connect those dots into a beautiful picture made just for you. The Bible says, “Then you will experience God’s peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.” (Phil 4:7) I testify that I feel His peace right now as I ponder my future. I have placed my future in God’s hands. I believe He will make it good.

I guarantee you, when you stay connected to Jesus, you will hear His voice. How does Jesus communicate with you? Sometimes it is through a dramatic event to get your attention. God knocked St. Paul off his horse before speaking to him. God generally uses less drama to communicate. I find that God speaks to me through my thoughts during prayer. When I sit at a blank computer screen before writing a sermon, I pray, “God, tell me what to write.” Then thoughts flow into my mind like gallons of eggnog at Christmas.

When Jesus speaks, you have to do more than listen. You have to follow Him. Sheep are not dumb as some think. Cowboys herd cows by going behind them to yell, shout, and crack the whip. I learned this by hearing the song “Rawhide” sung by the Blues Brothers. This doesn’t work with sheep. If the shepherd yells behind them, the sheep will run behind him. They want to be led. Jesus wants to lead.

Where does Jesus want to lead us? Revelation 7:17 says “For the Lamb on the throne will be their Shepherd. He will lead them to springs of life-giving water. And God will wipe every tear from their eyes.” The “life-giving water” He offers will wash away all pain and suffering. There will be no need to cry ever again.

Blessings...Fr. Mike
