BUSY AND TIRED?

Between work, family, and the constant noise of everyday life, prayer can feel like one more thing you don't have time for. But what if you had a plan? In his latest video, Fr. Mike shares simple, practical tips for staying grounded in prayer, even when your days are full. It's not about adding more pressure. It's about finding peace in the midst of your real life.

From the Pastor's Desk

If I asked you the date of your Baptism, would you know it? Many of us easily recall birthdays or wedding anniversaries, but the day of our Baptism—the day we were born into the life of Christ—is often forgotten. And yet, this was the day everything changed: when we were claimed by God, washed of sin, and welcomed into the family of faith.

In his Letter to the Colossians, St. Paul reminds us: “You have taken off the old self...and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in the image of its Creator.” This transformation is no mere symbol—it is a profound reality. In the early Church, the baptized would enter the font stripped of all worldly identity, only to rise again, clothed in white, a sign of their new life in Christ.

Today, though we do not come to the font as visibly exposed, the same spiritual renewal takes place. As the priest proclaims at every Baptism: “You have become a new creation and have clothed yourself in Christ.” With this white garment, we are entrusted with a mission—to keep our Christian dignity unstained, and to walk always as children of the light.

In our Gospel today, Jesus cautions against storing up earthly treasure while neglecting what matters to God. Baptism entrusts us with a light—the fire of the Holy Spirit—to be kept burning brightly. This light is not for hiding, but for guiding our lives and shining in the world.

So let us ask: Are we rich in what matters to God? Have we kept our baptismal garment clean, our hearts faithful, our light undimmed?

If you do not know the date of your Baptism, take time to find it. Mark it. Celebrate it. For on that day, you passed from death to life, and were made a dwelling place of the Living God.

May your Baptism be not a forgotten moment, but a daily call to holiness. And may your white garment—your Christian dignity—shine ever brighter until the day you meet Christ face to face.

Fr. Scott Morgan

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2025

Together Sunday is more than a moment—it's the beginning of a movement toward becoming a more welcoming and hospitable community. Every Sunday, we gather to worship Christ in the Eucharist—and every Sunday is an opportunity to open our doors and our hearts more widely. With Together Sunday, parishes are invited to take a fresh look at how they welcome people: not only through smiles and greetings, but through a culture that sees, accompanies, and invites. With resources for formation and tools for action, this initiative empowers parish communities to strengthen relationships, foster connection, and become places of belonging for all who enter.

A simple invitation can be life changing.

This fall, our parish is striving to be a place where people feel a strong sense of belonging. Where they are invited, welcomed, and supported. And most of all, where they can experience the joy of encountering Jesus in the Eucharist and in each other.

This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

– JOHN 13:35

TOGETHER
Sunday

1. Start with prayerful openness

Ask God to place someone on your heart.
Trust that God is already at work.

2. Hold them in prayer

Pray for that person each day. Ask for the grace to be a gentle and loving presence in their life.

3. Connect through friendship

Be present. Reach out. Initiate a conversation, a coffee, a shared moment. Let them know they're loved.

4. Extend a personal invitation

When the time feels right, invite them to take a next step in faith. For some that might be an invitation to come to Mass with you on Together Sunday,
September 14 — a day set aside for welcoming and community.

Because no matter where someone may be in his or her journey of faith, they are welcome here.

We're better together.

WHICH SAINT WAS A WIFE, MOTHER, AND A NUN?!

Meet St. Bridget of Sweden. She was a noblewoman, wife, mother of 8, nun, founder of a religious order, and saint.

Meet St. Bridget of Sweden, whose feast day is celebrated July 23rd!

She lived in a turbulent century for the Church, but she never let politics—or her own suffering—drown out the call of Christ.

Bridget was married to a pious nobleman named Ulf. Together they lived a deeply devout life raising their 8 children. One of them, St. Catherine of Sweden, would go on to also become a saint!

After Ulf's death, Bridget was sent down a surprising new path. She began receiving vivid revelations from Christ, which she carefully dictated and preserved.

While still in Sweden, she received a vision instructing her to found a new religious order. Christ showed her a rule of life centered on poverty, prayer, and imitation of the Virgin Mary. The community would include both men and women—an unusual structure at the time—living in separate quarters but united under one abbess.

This vision became the Order of the Most Holy Savior, now known as the Bridgettines. Though she never saw the order fully approved in her lifetime, Bridget worked tirelessly to secure papal recognition. She even traveled to Rome, where she spent her final years in advocacy, writing, and prayer.

After her death, Pope Urban V approved the order. The first monastery was established in Vadstena, Sweden, and it became a center of spiritual renewal and learning. Bridget's daughter, St. Catherine of Sweden, helped lead and spread the order after her mother's death.

In her Revelations, Christ said to her:

“I chose you as a trumpet so that My words may be heard.”

That trumpet still sounds. Bridget's voice—clear, insistent, faithful—remains a reminder that holiness often involves more than quiet devotion. Sometimes it means building something lasting, even when the world is falling apart.

While not all of us will be called to found a religious order, we are all called to holiness. St. Bridget's life reminds us of the sanctity of all vocations.

For every Catholic woman, may this be a gentle reminder to embrace the vocation God has placed before you—whatever it looks like right now.
