"If we wish to serve God and love our neighbor well, we must manifest our joy in the service we render to Him and them. Let us open wide our hearts. It is joy which invites us. Press forward and fear nothing."

– St. Katherine Drexel

"My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places."

From the Pastor's Desk

They say that when God closes one door, He opens another for us to walk through. If we reflect on the many circumstances of our lives, most of us can recognize a deep truth in that saying. Scripture tells us that after the sin of Adam, humanity was driven from the garden and the entrance to paradise was guarded; through sin, the door to communion with God was closed. Today, as we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we also celebrate the reopening of that door and God's renewed invitation to all people of every time and place to enter into His life. The prophet Isaiah foretold the coming of one who would be blessed and chosen by God: "a servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased." This servant would bring justice, be a light to the nations, and lead those who dwell in darkness into the light. Saint Paul echoes this promise in his letter to Titus, no longer as prophecy but as fulfillment. In Jesus Christ, Paul proclaims, God has come among us and given Himself "to purify us, to make us his own people." John the Baptist, the voice crying out in the desert to "prepare the way of the Lord," bears witness to this truth, which is solemnly revealed at Jesus' Baptism in the Jordan. We readily profess that Jesus is the Messiah, the promised one who brings light into the darkness. Yet the feast invites us to ponder a deeper question: if Jesus is truly God, why did He need to be baptized? The answer unfolds within the great story of salvation. In the Book of Exodus, God goes before His people in a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. At the Red Sea, the waters part, and Israel passes from slavery toward freedom. This crossing has long been understood as a foreshadowing of Baptism, a passage from bondage to new life. In the Baptism of the Lord, we see this pattern fulfilled. Jesus does not enter the waters because He needs cleansing; rather, He enters them to sanctify the waters for us. As He goes before His people once again, He prepares the way for our own passage from sin to grace. By His action, the waters of Baptism become a source of purification and new life. Luke records John's promise: "He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." Through our own Baptism, that promise is fulfilled. We are cleansed from sin, reborn as sons and daughters of the Father, and welcomed into eternal life. As Saint Paul reminds us, in Baptism we die with Christ and rise with Him to new life. The door once closed by sin has been thrown open, and the Father speaks over us the same words spoken to His Son: "You are my beloved; with you I am well pleased." As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, may we renew our gratitude for this great gift and walk confidently through the door Christ has opened, living each day in the grace and freedom He has won for us.

Fr. Scott Morgan

NOTES FROM FR. ADAM LEWIS

The Epiphany of the Lord (Year A):

Sometimes during Solemnities or other important feasts (or when we do not have a choir), Fr. Scott and I may chant the Ordinary parts of the Mass in Latin (such as the Sanctus, Agnus Dei, & Pater Noster: Holy holy holy, Lamb of God, & Our Father respectively). The Church's teaching on the use of Latin in the Mass is clear, consistent, and often misunderstood. Here's the official teaching of the Church regarding the use of Latin in Mass:

1. Latin is the Church's *proper* liturgical language: The Catholic Church teaches that **Latin belongs to the Roman Rite by right**, not by nostalgia. The Second Vatican Council teaches in Sacrosanctum Concilium, §36: "The use of the Latin language is to be preserved in the Latin rites." This is not an optional language. Vatican II teaches Latin "is to be preserved," even while allowing limited use of the vernacular.

2. The vernacular is permitted – but not mandated: The Council allowed the use of local languages "for the good of the people," especially in readings and responses: SC §36 & §54: Vernacular may be used; Latin should not be eliminated; The faithful should be able to say or sing the Ordinary of the Mass in Latin (**Kyrie [Greek]**, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, Agnus Dei, & Pater Noster). In other words: Vatican II did **not** call for the abandonment of Latin.

3. Popes after Vatican II reaffirmed Latin repeatedly: Pope Benedict XVI in, Sacramentum Caritatis §62: "I ask that the faithful be able to recite together in Latin those parts of the Ordinary of the Mass..." Benedict was explicit: Latin is not an obstacle to participation – it can *foster* it.

4. Latin safeguards unity, reverence, and doctrinal stability: The Church sees real theological value in Latin: *Unity* across nations and cultures; *Stability* (Latin doesn't change like living languages); *Precision* in doctrine and prayer; *Sacral character* — set apart from everyday speech. This is why all official liturgical texts are first promulgated in Latin.

5. The current discipline today: The Ordinary Form (Novus Ordo) is the Latin Rite of the Church and thus may be celebrated entirely in Latin; No document has ever forbidden Latin in Mass; No priest needs special permission to use Latin in the Ordinary Form. It is the preferred language of the Latin (Roman) rite.

6. Regarding (Latin) Gregorian Chant: Vatican II, Sacrosanctum Concilium, "The Church acknowledges Gregorian chant as specially suited to the Roman liturgy." "Therefore, other things being equal, it should be given pride of place (principem locum) in liturgical services." (§116). "Specially suited" = organically proper to the Roman Rite. "Pride of place" = not merely one option among equals. Vatican II did not demote chant; it explicitly reaffirmed it.

Bottom line: The Roman (Latin) Catholic Church teaches that Latin should be preserved, known, and used in the Mass. The vernacular is a pastoral concession, not a replacement. If Latin has disappeared from many parishes, that reflects local practice, not the Church's doctrine.

Latin Ordinaries you may hear: Holy, holy, holy...: Sánctus, Sanctus, Sanctus Dóminus Deus Sabaoth. Pleni sunt cæli et terra glória tua. Hosánna in excélsis. Benedíctus qui venit in nómine Dómini. Hosánna in excélsis.

Lamb of God...: Ágnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi: miserére nobis. Ágnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi: miserére nobis. Ágnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi: dona nobis pacem.

ST. MARY CEMETERY FUND – JANUARY YELLOW ENVELOPES

Why You Should Give to the Cemetery Church Fund:

Supporting the cemetery church funds is a meaningful act that honors the memory of loved ones and ensures the continued care of sacred spaces.

Please prayerfully consider donating to the cemetery church fund:

Maintain Beauty and Dignity: Cemetery funds provide income that covers the costs of mowing, preserving monuments, and general maintenance, ensuring the grounds remain beautiful and dignified year-round.

Support the Community: Donations help support the spiritual well-being of the community, allowing parishes to focus on their mission without the burden of extensive cemetery maintenance costs.

Tax Benefits: Donations to the cemetery fund, easing the financial responsibility of both the donor and the church.

Long-term Care: Perpetual care funds are designed to provide income for cemetery maintenance and upkeep, ensuring cemetery care for generations to come.

Community Responsibility: Donating to a cemetery fund fosters a sense of community and shared responsibility, ensuring that the grounds are maintained and preserved for future generations.

By donating to the cemetery church fund, you contribute to the long-term care of these sacred spaces and help ensure that they remain a peaceful and respectful environment for those who visit to mourn and remember.

We are called, like Jesus, to bring about God's kingdom of justice, love, healing, liberation and peace through whatever ways and means are possible. As we settle back into Ordinary Time; albeit only for a few weeks before Lent begins, let us remember that through our own baptism God has named us as his beloved sons and daughters and that like Jesus, all that we undertake must flow from who and what we are – God's beloved.
