From the Pastor's Desk

The birth of a child is always surrounded by excitement and joy. Family and friends gather with eager anticipation to see and hold the newborn, gifts are carefully chosen, meals are prepared, and life seems to pause to welcome this new beginning. The news spreads quickly, and hearts are lifted in celebration. On the feast of the Epiphany of the Lord, we are invited once again into that joy, but the Child we celebrate is no ordinary child. He is the long-awaited Messiah, the fulfillment of God's promise, born not only for one people, but for the salvation of the entire human race. In Matthew's Gospel, the Epiphany is presented as the fulfillment of ancient prophecy: the revelation of Christ to the nations. The Magi, guided by a star, come from afar to adore the newborn King, representing all peoples who are drawn into the light of Christ. Isaiah gives voice to this mystery when he proclaims, "Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance." What was once spoken in hope now unfolds in history; the glory of the Lord is revealed, and it is meant for all. Central to this feast are the gifts the Magi present: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Matthew tells us that they first prostrated themselves in worship and only then opened their treasures. Their gifts were not random offerings, but profound signs of who this Child truly is. As the early Church recognized, gold proclaims Christ as King, whose reign has no end; frankincense acknowledges Him as God, worthy of worship; and myrrh foreshadows His suffering and death, reminding us that He came to give His life for our salvation. Yet the Epiphany is not merely a remembrance of a past event. As St. Paul reminds us, the mystery now revealed is that all nations are coheirs in Christ, members of one body. Through the life of the Church, especially in the celebration of the Sacraments and above all the Eucharist, the glory of God continues to be made manifest today. We are both the Magi who come to adore and those sent forth to proclaim the Good News to the world. This feast invites us to a deeper question: what do we bring to the Lord? We may not carry gold, frankincense, or myrrh, but we bring our lives – our joys and struggles, our faith and doubts, our desire for conversion. As St. Bernard of Clairvaux reflected, the Magi appeared foolish to the world, kneeling before a helpless Child, yet in that "foolishness" they found true wisdom. As we approach the manger and behold the Child with Mary His mother, may we follow in the footsteps of the Magi. With hearts full of joy, may we offer ourselves to Christ, becoming humble in the eyes of the world but wise in the sight of God, and allowing His light to shine through us to all nations.

Did you know that every year, a different European country or region donates the massive tree in St. Peter's Square?

The tree will be accompanied by the Nativity scene (presepe) for St. Peter's Square, which this year comes from the Diocese of Nocera Inferiore-Sarno in the southern Italian region of Campania. The tradition of placing a Christmas Tree and the Nativity Scene at the Vatican started in 1982, during the pontificate of Pope John Paul II. The first-ever Christmas Tree came from Italy, and since then, every year, a tree is donated by a different European country or region. So the tree changes every year! For Christmas 2025, the magnificent Christmas tree in St. Peter's Square at the Vatican comes from the Alto Adige region in northern Italy. The tree is a tall Norway Spruce (approximately 25-27 meters high) harvested from the Ultimo Valley (Val d'Ultimo) in the province of Bolzano, Trentino-Alto Adige. It is being gifted to the Vatican by the Italian municipalities of Lagundo and Ultimo. This region, known for its stunning Alpine landscapes, donates the tree as a symbol of its "spiritual and emotional bond" with the Pope and the universal Church. The selection process is noted to follow sustainable forestry management principles. The tree will be accompanied by the Nativity scene (presepe) for St. Peter's Square, which this year comes from the Diocese of Nocera Inferiore-Sarno in the southern Italian region of Campania. The tree is seen as complementing the Nativity scene, which has been a much older tradition. The tree's symbolism is tied to Christ as the light of the world:

Evergreen: Symbolizes the eternal life and light of Christ.

Lights: Remind the faithful that Jesus is the light that drives away the darkness of sin.

Height: Symbolizes God lifting humanity up to Himself.

The Vatican tree and the Nativity scene are unveiled and lit in a formal ceremony in early December and remain on display until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord in January. Pope St. John Paul II instituted this beautiful Christmas tradition at the Vatican.

DEAR ST. BENIGNUS CHURCH

The toy drive for the Greenfield Area Christian Center was a tremendous success this year. You or your group did a wonderful job shopping for us this year. We had a great selection for the parents to choose from and they were so thankful for the gifts.

GACC gave out to 51 families and 92 children with more than 63% of them being older ones. GACC can only express our sincere gratitude for your generosity and Christmas spirit. Our community is so lucky to have caring people like you. We truly appreciate your support and look forward to working with you next year.

A special thank you to St. Benignus for all the wonderful gifts. They really made a difference and helped make wishes come true.

Sincerely, Judy Schmidt, Chairperson

Dear St. Mary Parishioners,

As most are aware, there are a significant amount of deferred maintenance repairs that need to be made to our campus. We have gained estimates for repairs to begin in the St. Mary Rectory – for my soon-to-be permanent offices. We will also begin structural repairs on the main body of the church in the near future. Please note that in January your “Building Fund” envelopes will be called “St. Mary Maintenance Fund.” Due to the Hall being paid off, this Maintenance Fund will begin to help offset the costs and allow us to begin the repairs needed to keep St. Mary a shining pillar in our community. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the maintenance fund to preserve our beautiful church.

Thank you, Fr. Scott Morgan, Pastor
