From the Pastor's Desk

I have always loved music. It can help us focus when we work or study, bring relaxation after a long day, or set the mood for a joyful summer drive with the windows down and the radio up. Music has a way of meeting us wherever we are: calm, burdened, excited, or hopeful. For nearly every moment of life there is a melody that resonates with the soul.

Dom Prosper Guéranger, a 19th-century Benedictine, once wrote that sacred music is the voice of the Church's soul calling out to God. He recognized music's unique power to stir the heart, to awaken emotion even in the most stoic listener. Like a beautifully composed piece with its rise and fall — the crescendo and decrescendo that give life and movement — our spiritual journey during Advent follows its own rhythm.

Today, the Third Sunday of Advent, marks a kind of crescendo. In the midst of our preparation and penance, the Church bids us to rejoice. This day is traditionally known as Gaudete Sunday, from the Latin Gaudete — "Rejoice!" — taken from the entrance antiphon of Philippians: "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice!" The rose candle and vestments stand as visible signs of this joy.

Our readings overflow with this theme. Isaiah speaks of the people returning from exile, "crowned with everlasting joy." St. Paul echoes that same call to rejoice. Even James reminds us with hope that the Lord's coming is near.

The world around us may feel hectic, heavy, or chaotic, but joy rises even there; not mere cheerfulness, but the deep gladness that knows God is drawing close. As we continue our Advent preparation, may this Sunday lift our hearts like a crescendo in a great symphony. Let us rejoice, for the Lord is near!

Traveling Mary and Joseph at St. Mary

A long-standing tradition at St. Mary is the traveling Holy Family. During Advent, Joseph, Mary with child and a donkey move to different locations each weekend until they make it to the place where the Creche will be erected. So, make sure you keep an eye out, say a little prayer to all travelers this holiday season and in all the rush and stress be reminded of the true meaning of Christmas.

St. Mary Choir: Your Saturday organists would love to have voices join them upstairs for Saturday Mass. Announcing songs, singing the songs familiar to you and new to us, keeping us on the right verse – all would be helpful. Please wander upstairs and introduce yourself. No special process is necessary. Help us make a joyful noise unto the Lord. – Kristy and Cathy Even when we are fully awake and walking around, going to work or taking care of things at home, we are often spiritually asleep – and don't realize it. We forget that we are in need of a savior. We are caught up in this world, just as the people at Bethlehem were when Joseph and Mary sought shelter for the soon-to-be-born Christ Child. Our lives are so full, so busy with daily tasks, that heaven becomes a vague idea which rarely affects us. And this is certainly understandable. Our days are filled with the average and the ordinary: ordinary responsibilities, ordinary frustrations, ordinary sins. Advent calls us back. Advent wakes us up.

I place myself and all my loved ones, wherever they may be, in Your sacred side and under the mantle of Our Blessed Mother. Let Your holy angels stand watch and keep us in peace. Amen.

Fr. Scott Morgan

Notes from Father Adam Lewis: Second Sunday of Advent (Year A):

Jesus is the only founder of any major religion that was ever pre-announced – Divinely revealed.

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit:

The gift of Wisdom enables us to see the world from God's viewpoint, which can help us come to grasp the purpose and plan of God. It grants us the long-range view of history, examining the present in the light of the past and the mystery of the future. It saves us from the illusion that the spirit of the times is our only guide. The Spirit's gift of knowledge directs us to a contemplation, or thoughtful reflection, of the mystery of God-Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—as well as of the mysteries of the Catholic faith. We are drawn to meditative prayer, where we allow God to lead us while we rest patiently in the divine presence.

The gift of understanding stimulates us to work on knowing ourselves as part of our growth in knowing God. It is what St. Augustine meant when he prayed, "That I may know You, may I know myself." When the Spirit pours fortitude or courage into our hearts, we can trust that we will be prepared to stand up for Christ and the Gospel when challenged. As the gift of counsel or right judgment grows in us, we can sense the quiet teaching that the Spirit gives us about our moral lives and the training of our consciences.

The gift of piety or reverence is an act of respect for the Father who created us, for Jesus who saved us, and for the Spirit who is sanctifying us. We learn reverence for God and people from our parents and others who train us in virtue. The Spirit fills us with this gift at liturgy, which is a masterful school of reverence, as well as through popular devotions and piety.

Finally, the gift of fear of the Lord or wonder and awe in God's presence can infuse honesty into our relationship with God, a frankness that places us in awe before the majesty of God. Yet, the gift also imparts an attitude of grateful wonder that God loves us and that we can share in His life.

When we are responsive to the grace of Confirmation and the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, we begin to bear the fruits of the Spirit. The tradition of the Church names twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity (cf. CCC, no. 1832; Gal 5:22).

523 (in 'The Preparations for Jesus Christ') – St. John the Baptist is the Lord's immediate precursor or forerunner, sent to prepare His way. "Prophet of the Most High," John surpasses all the prophets, of whom he is the last. He inaugurates the Gospel, already from his mother's womb welcomes the coming of Christ, and rejoices in being "the friend of the bridegroom," whom he points out as "the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." Going before Jesus "in the spirit and power of Elijah," John bears witness to Christ in his preaching, by his Baptism of conversion, and through his martyrdom.

678 Following in the steps of the prophets and John the Baptist, Jesus announced the judgment of the Last Day in his preaching. Then will the conduct of each one and the secrets of hearts be brought to light. Then will the culpable unbelief that counted the offer of God's grace as nothing be condemned. Our attitude to our neighbor will disclose acceptance or refusal of grace and divine love. On the Last Day, Jesus will say: "Truly I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me."

CLOSING OF THE JUBILEE YEAR WITH ARCHBISHOP CASEY

All are invited to join Archbishop Casey as he celebrates Mass for the Closing of the Jubilee Year on Sunday, December 28, 10:00 a.m. at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains. At the request of the Holy Father, a collection for the poor will be taken.
