From the Pastor's Desk

As we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent, we stand at the threshold of Christmas. The days of waiting are nearly complete, and the Church places before us readings that draw our attention to the quiet, hidden ways God fulfills His promises. These final moments of Advent invite us not simply to prepare decorations or finalize plans, but to prepare our hearts to receive Emmanuel – “God with us.”

In the first reading from the prophet Isaiah, King Ahaz is offered a sign from the Lord. Though Ahaz hesitates, God acts anyway, promising: “The virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel.” God’s faithfulness does not depend on human perfection or understanding. Even in moments of doubt or fear, the Lord remains steadfast, working His plan of salvation in ways far beyond what we expect.

The Gospel continues this theme through the figure of Saint Joseph. Joseph is a righteous man, faithful to God’s law, yet he is faced with a situation that would have caused deep confusion and pain. In a dream, the angel reveals God’s plan and invites Joseph to trust: “Do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home.” Joseph responds not with words, but with action. He places his life entirely at the service of God’s will, becoming the quiet guardian of the Savior and a model of humble obedience.

Together, these readings remind us that God often works through ordinary people who are willing to listen and trust. Joseph does not fully understand the mystery before him, but he believes. He teaches us that faith does not always mean having answers – it means allowing God to lead, even when the path is unclear. As Christmas approaches, the Fourth Sunday of Advent asks us to slow down and make room for the Lord. Like Joseph, we are invited to welcome Christ into our lives, our homes, and our hearts. Emmanuel comes to dwell with us – not in power or splendor, but in humility and love. May these final days of Advent help us grow in trust and openness to God’s presence. As we prepare to celebrate the birth of Jesus, may we recognize Him as Emmanuel, the God who is always with us, guiding us gently toward the fullness of life.

Fr. Scott Morgan

Notes from Fr. Adam Lewis

Third Sunday of Advent, Gaudete Sunday (Year A):

Seeking to Suffer and Rise with Christ

The further you withdraw from earthly things the closer you approach heavenly things and the more you find God. Whoever knows how to die in all will have life in all. Abandon evil, do good, and seek peace (Ps 34:14).

Anyone who complains or grumbles is not perfect, nor even a good Christian. The humble are those who hide in their own nothingness and know how to abandon themselves to God....

If you desire to be perfect, sell your will, give it to the poor in spirit, come to Christ in meekness and humility, and follow him to Calvary and the sepulcher. Those who trust in themselves are worse than the devil. Those who do not love their neighbor abhor God.

Anyone who does things lukewarmly is close to falling.

Whoever flees prayer flees all that is good. Conquering the tongue is better than fasting on bread and water.

Suffering for God is better than working miracles.

Oh, what blessings we will enjoy in the vision of the Most Blessed Trinity!... As for trials, the more the better. What does anyone know who doesn’t know how to suffer for Christ?

Saint John of the Cross (+ 1591) is called the Mystical Doctor. The above words are taken from his “Sayings of Light and Love.”

Our Lady of Guadalupe miracles:

The tilma of Our Lady of Guadalupe is associated with a cluster of extraordinary features. Taken together, they’re why the image has been studied for nearly 500 years and still defies a full natural explanation. Here are the main miracles traditionally cited, explained plainly and carefully.

- The tilma should have disintegrated – but didn’t. A tilma made from agave fibers normally lasts 10-30 years at best. The Guadalupe tilma has survived nearly 500 years, exposed to: humidity, smoke from candles, dust and pollution, handling and movement. Despite this, the fabric has not deteriorated as expected, which alone is highly unusual.
- No detectable brushstrokes or known pigments. Multiple examinations (including 20th-century scientific studies) found: No brushstrokes; No preparatory sketch; No known mineral, animal, or plant pigments that match the image in several areas. Some pigments appear to sit on the surface of the fibers rather than soaking in, unlike paint.
- The eyes: microscopic reflections. One of the most discussed features is found in Mary’s eyes: When magnified, the eyes appear to show reflections of human figures. The reflections follow the Purkinje–Sanson law, which governs how images reflect in a human eye. Figures appear consistent in both eyes and scaled correctly. Among the reflected figures are what appear to be Juan Diego, the bishop, and others present at the unveiling. This phenomenon was unknown to science in 1531.
- Stable temperature like living tissue. Measurements have shown the tilma maintains a constant temperature around 98.6°F (37°C) – close to human body temperature – despite environmental changes. This is unusual for a fabric hanging in open air.

As our year closes, SVDP of St. Benignus thanks everyone for donations of time, talent, goods or donations; any prayers for our success or client's needs; or suggestions you've made. We gave over $12,000 toward client needs, mostly in pantry items (food, cleaning supplies, toilet paper) and utilities in danger of being disconnected. TRAVELING MARY AND JOSEPH AT ST. MARY

A long-standing tradition at St. Mary is the traveling Holy Family. During Advent, Joseph, Mary with child and a donkey move to different locations each weekend until they make it to the place where the Creche will be erected. So, make sure you keep an eye out, say a little prayer for all travelers this holiday season and in all the rush and stress be reminded of the true meaning of Christmas.

St. Mary Choir: Your Saturday organists would love to have voices join them upstairs for Saturday Mass. Announcing songs, singing the songs familiar to you and new to us, keeping us on the right verse – all would be helpful. Please wander upstairs and introduce yourself. No special process is necessary. Help us make a joyful noise unto the Lord.

GOOD CATHOLIC DIGITAL CONTENT SERIES

Even when we are fully awake and walking around, going to work or taking care of things at home, we are often spiritually asleep – and don't realize it. We forget that we are in need of a savior. We are caught up in this world, just as the people at Bethlehem were when Joseph and Mary sought shelter for the soon-to-be-born Christ Child. Our lives are so full, so busy with daily tasks, that heaven becomes a vague idea which rarely affects us. And this is certainly understandable. Our days are filled with the average and the ordinary: ordinary responsibilities, ordinary frustrations, ordinary sins. Advent calls us back. Advent wakes us up.

Did you know there are three Christmas Masses?

There were three traditional Christmas Masses ...

The Catholic tradition of celebrating three distinct Masses on Christmas Day is an ancient and profound custom, rooted in the history of the Church in Rome and steeped in theological symbolism. While Catholics are only required to attend one Mass to fulfill the Holy Day Obligation, the three Masses beautifully symbolize the threefold birth of Christ: His eternal birth from the Father, His temporal birth from the Virgin Mary, and His spiritual birth in our hearts.

1. The Mass During the Night (The Angels' Mass) Time:

Midnight (or late Christmas Eve).

Symbolism: This Mass focuses on Christ's Eternal Birth from the Father, a hidden, mysterious, and miraculous event. Celebrated in the darkness of night, it mirrors the spiritual darkness of the world before Christ's coming. It emphasizes the immediate, hidden moment of the Nativity.

Key Scripture Theme: The Nativity Narrative itself, featuring the Gospel of Luke where the angels announce the birth to the shepherds.

2. The Mass at Dawn (The Shepherds' Mass) Time: Daybreak.

Symbolism: As the natural light begins to return, this Mass focuses on Christ's Spiritual Birth in the hearts of the faithful. Christ is celebrated as the "Sun of Justice" bringing illumination to the world. The shift from the deep night to the first light of day symbolizes the dawning of grace in humanity. The Shepherds, the first to adore Christ, represent the simple faithful who are drawn to Him.

Key Scripture Theme: The Adoration of the Shepherds (Luke), focusing on the shepherds hastening to the crib and proclaiming the Good News.

3. The Mass During the Day (The King's Mass) Time:

Morning/Daytime.

Symbolism: Celebrated in the fullness of day, this Mass focuses on Christ's Temporal/Historical Birth and the full revelation of His Divinity and Incarnation to the whole world. It proclaims Christ as the Eternal Word made flesh and the undisputed King of Kings.

Key Scripture Theme: The Prologue of St. John's Gospel ("In the beginning was the Word..."), which provides the most theological reflection on the Incarnation: "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us." All of this comes from the Church's ancient historical practice, the texts of the Roman Missal, and authoritative theological teaching.

Dear St. Mary Parishioners,

As most are aware, there are a significant amount of deferred maintenance repairs that need to be made to our campus. We have gained estimates for repairs to begin in the St. Mary Rectory – for my soon-to-be permanent offices. We will also begin structural repairs on the main body of the church in the near future. Please note that in January your "Building Fund" envelopes will be called "St. Mary Maintenance Fund." Due to the Hall being paid off, this Maintenance Fund will begin to help offset the costs and allow us to begin the repairs needed to keep St. Mary a shining pillar in our community. The estimated cost for repairs to the interior of the rectory are $13,274.16 Please prayerfully consider how you can support the maintenance fund to preserve our beautiful church.

Thank you, Fr. Scott Morgan, Pastor

A CHRISTMAS NOTE FROM FR SCOTT

"O sweet Child of Bethlehem..." With these tender words, Pope Saint John XXIII gives voice to the deepest longing of the human heart. His Christmas prayer reminds us that beneath every desire for joy, beauty, love, and goodness lies a hunger for peace – a peace the world cannot manufacture and that only Christ can give. In a single phrase, the Holy Father directs us to the true gift of Christmas: Emmanuel, God who is with us. In the weeks leading up to this holy day, many of us have been caught up in preparations. Homes have been decorated, gifts wrapped, meals planned, and calendars filled. The joyful busyness of the season can also bring a measure of stress and fatigue. Yet today, everything changes. Christmas arrives with a sacred stillness. The noise fades, the rushing pauses, and the world seems to hold its breath. In the quiet glow of this day, we are invited to kneel at the manger and to offer our own Christmas prayer. What has your heart been longing for? Peace in a troubled family? Healing in body or spirit? Strength simply to get through another day? Whatever your prayer, the words spoken by the angel to the shepherds are spoken now to each of us: "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy... for today a Savior has been born for you who is Christ the Lord." This is not distant or abstract news. It is for you. St. Catherine of Siena once asked, "What more could you have given me than the gift of your very self?" That is the mystery we celebrate today. God does not give something; He gives Himself. The eternal Word becomes flesh, born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem, entering fully into our human story. Like Mary, we are invited to ponder this mystery in our hearts. Like the shepherds, we are sent forth glorifying and praising God for all we have heard and seen – because it is exactly as we have been told. Today, God is with us. Today, a Savior is born. May this truth fill your hearts with lasting peace, deep gratitude, and the joy that comes from knowing that the greatest gift of all has been given: God Himself. Merry Christmas!

Fr. Scott Morgan, Pastor

"At this Christmas when Christ comes, will He find a warm heart?
