Under Catholic Canon Law 534, pastors and diocesan bishops are required to celebrate a "Missa pro populo" (Mass for the people) for all parishioners on every Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation. This is a personal obligation of the pastor/bishop and must be applied for the entire parish, with no stipend accepted.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Throughout these past few years, we have increasingly heard about synods and the emphasis on being a “synodal Church.” Discussions of new life, growth, missionary discipleship, and the like can often bring with them a sense of excitement as we dream of a future filled with vibrant, thriving churches — all of which are good things. While we can and should be excited about the future, it does beg the question: “What does all of this mean?”

In its simplest definition, a synod is an extended conversation. Usually taking place over a period of time, a synod unfolds in multiple phases or rounds of localized conversations, often called “conversations in the Spirit” or “listening sessions,” which culminate in a larger gathering known as a general assembly. These listening sessions are intended to help the Church gather together and, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, identify the needs of the Church in a particular place and discern where the Lord may be calling us. The general assembly then gathers to discuss these findings and help chart a path forward.

In the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, our last synod was held in 1971. At that time, the archdiocese discerned the priorities and pastoral needs of the Church in the wake of the Second Vatican Council, which prompted changes in governance, stewardship, and many other areas of parish life. Fifty-five years have passed since our last synod, and much has changed during that time. For this reason, Archbishop Casey has called for an Archdiocesan Synod to take place in 2027.

We are still in the beginning stages of this process, but throughout the next several months we will be invited to participate in surveys and listening sessions to help guide it. I encourage you to take full advantage of these opportunities, as they will give voice to your lived experience of the Church in our communities.

The goal of Synod 2027 is to assist Archbishop Casey in forming a pastoral plan for the Archdiocese that is guided by the Holy Spirit through prayerful discernment with the faithful. Our prayer and participation in the synod connect us more deeply to the larger Church and help us engage more fully as missionary disciples — those called and sent forth to proclaim the Good News to all the world.

As we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost this weekend, let us ask the Holy Spirit to once again enkindle within us the fire of His love: to lead us, guide us, and help us know the path the Lord has prepared for us. Come, Holy Spirit, come!

Fr. Scott Morgan

NOTES FROM FR. ADAM

St. Catherine of Siena advises: “Never descend to the level of argument with the enemy in times of temptation.” For “getting people to discuss the matter” is exactly what he wants.

One time, in the midst of severe and vile temptations, Catherine was discouraged and asked the Lord where he had been all the while. “I was in your heart,” the Lord assured her. “But how can I possibly believe that you were in my heart,” she asked, “when it was full of ugly, filthy thoughts?” Jesus then asked if the thoughts had made her happy or sad. When Catherine replied that she was not at all pleased with the thoughts but was completely disgusted with them, Jesus explained that it was He, hidden at the center of her heart, who made her feel such dissatisfaction. “If I had not been there, they would have entered your heart and you would have felt pleasure in them,” the Lord explained, “but My presence there caused them to displease you.” He went on: “I, who was defending your heart from the enemies, was hidden there all the time, and though I permitted you to be attacked I was still there.”

The experience, Catherine realized, was the answer to her prayer to grow in fortitude.

1ST SATURDAY MASS

Mass will be offered on the 1st Saturday of the month at 9:00 a.m. at both Holy Trinity and St. Mary. This 1st Saturday Mass will be celebrated ad orientem (with the priest facing the tabernacle) and will be in Latin. All other Masses will continue to be celebrated in English and facing the people.

SVDP OF ST. BENIGNUS

SVDP meetings are on Thursdays. On the first and third Thursdays at 5:30 p.m. all are welcome.

ST. BENIGNUS SVDP UPDATE

The winter clothing drive has concluded, but the April toilet paper drive has returned! A popular item at pantry – families take one roll per family member when they leave. Your donations helped defer the cost to the SVDP budget and if we remember correctly, carried us through two months after the last drive. Thank you for your gifts of time, talent or treasure! April Toilet Paper Drive at St. Benignus has been extended through May.

St. Benignus NEEDS: Generous truck or van owner with time to drive to and from a Cincinnati warehouse for free baked items to benefit the Greenfield area pantries and blessing boxes. This benefits several churches, the GACC and SVDP. The prior supplier needs to retire from his services, and this will be greatly missed. Please contact the St. Benignus parish office for more details.

ST. BENIGNUS LADIES AUXILIARY

St. Benignus Ladies Auxiliary Meetings will be held on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 6:30 p.m. in the Religious Ed Bldg. Any questions, please reach out to Paula at 937-876-9883. All are invited to come and help support your church. St. Benignus Parishioners, please bring in your receipts from Community Market. These receipts are turned in to the store, and a percentage of the total is sent to the Ladies Auxiliary who purchases items needed for the parish.

OUTREACH PRIEST
Fr. Chris Arockiaraj, PSS

Fr. Arockiaraj was born in Chennai, India. He was ordained in April 1995 and is a priest in the Archdiocese of Madras, India. Fr. Chris is the Director of Pastoral Formation at Theological College, the national diocesan seminary at The Catholic University of America. He has held various positions, including pastor, hospital chaplain, formation advisor and spiritual advisor. As an Outreach Priest he is able to see the difference Cross Catholic makes in serving the poor. He is inspired and motivated as a priest working with those in need. An inspiring and compassionate orator, Cross Catholic Outreach is proud to have Father Arockiaraj preach on behalf of those we serve — the poorest of the poor.

THIS WEEKEND, WE WELCOME FATHER CHRIS AROCKIARAJ FROM CROSS CATHOLIC OUTREACH.

He will share some touching stories about the amazing work its ministry partners perform as they carry out the Corporal Works of Mercy, such as feeding the hungry and giving drink to the thirsty. Cross Catholic Outreach has very little overhead, and the vast majority of funds raised go directly to the projects helping the poorest of the poor around the world. To learn more about Cross Catholic Outreach, please visit CrossCatholic.org/outreach.
